NAZARBAYEV

UNIVERSITY

FOUNDATION YEAR PROGRAM
(NUFYP)

Center for Preparatory Studies

THE PROGRAM

Center for Preparatory Studies (CPS) at Nazarbayev University was founded in 2010 in cooperation with University College London and was the first division of the Nazarbayev University. In 2015, Nazarbayev University created its own Foundation Year Program (NUFYP). This Program was specifically designed for Kazakhstani students and provides academic instruction that prepares students to be successful in top English-medium universities around the world. Since 2010, the vast majority of students who have completed NUFYP have advanced to successful undergraduate study in Nazarbayev University while a few students immediately pursued an international education.

Nazarbayev University is the first University to gain BALEAP accreditation in the CIS countries
