Your home away from home

We're also here to help you find your on-campus residence or off-campus housing. If you're a first-year undergraduate student with a Provincial Attestation Letter (PAL) and apply by the fall housing application deadline, you'll be guaranteed a spot in first year or supported in finding an off-campus winter option.

If you're an English Language Institute student enrolled in a program that is eight months or longer, you'll also be guaranteed residence accommodation — conditional upon completing a residence application and paying the application fee by your residence offer deadline. If you apply for housing after the deadline, you'll be added to the waiting list.

If you prefer off-campus accommodation, are starting in January, or are in an ELI program that is less than eight months, the TMU Housing Office offers assistance in your housing search.
