

THE APPOINTMENTS

Contents

Senior Management/Heads of Department 60-63

Professors/Readers/Principals/Senior Lecturers 64-69

Lecturers/Fellows/Tutors/Researchers/Studentships 68-70

EXECUTIVE FOCUS
Pages 28-29

To place an advertisement please write to:

Recruitment Advertising
Times Higher Education
26 Red Lion Square
Holborn, London WC1R 4HQ
Tel: 020 3194 3399
Email: recruitment@timeshighereducation.co.uk

Booking deadline:

Monday 10 am the week of publication.

Your advertisement will appear on www.timeshighereducation.co.uk/jobs for 4 weeks or until the application closing date if stated (whichever is sooner), unless specified otherwise or for technical reasons we are unable to display it.

All advertisements published are subject to terms and conditions of TSL Education Ltd (available on request).

Appointment of Chilver Chair and Head of the Department of Civil, Environmental and Geomatic Engineering

Consistently ranked among the world's top universities, UCL is a modern, outward-looking HEI, with a global reputation for excellence across research and teaching. Founded in 1826 as a radically different institution, that opened up higher education to people of all beliefs and social backgrounds, this pioneering ethos remains alive today. As London's leading multidisciplinary university, UCL is a true academic powerhouse, committed to engaging with the 'Grand Challenges' of the 21st Century, with genuinely international reach and vision.

UCL Engineering and its ten departments provide some of the most innovative teaching, most accomplished graduates and most impactful research of any engineering centre in Europe. Everybody at UCL Engineering is encouraged to use their energy and creativity to the full – to change thinking, to change lives, to change the world. Within this dynamic context, the Department of Civil, Environmental and Geomatic Engineering now seeks a new Head. Reporting to the Dean of UCL Engineering, this individual will ensure the delivery of the department's vision, capitalising on their broad interdisciplinary range of engineering and science skills, to form the basis for innovative research, teaching and public engagement which will enhance quality of life and contribute to positive global changes.

Candidates will possess an excellent track record in the development of world-leading research and educational activity in the civil, environmental or geomatic engineering fields. They will have successfully operated in a comparable role, and will bring the requisite gravitas and energy that will enable them to lead the Department through the next phase of its development.

For further details, including the job description, person specification and information on how to apply, please visit www.perrettlaver.com/candidates and quote reference 1216. The deadline for applications is midday on Friday 19th April 2013.

Perrett Laver
8-10 Great George St
London SW1P 3AE
United Kingdom
T +44 (0) 20 7340 6200
perrettlaver.com

FREE online recruitment advertising for support roles*

Unique to Times Higher Education, this exclusive offer is designed to support ALL UK universities.

*Excludes senior management, heads of department, leaders, lecturers, fellowships, tutors, researchers, academic support and salaries of £45,000 per annum and above. Free until 31 August 2013.

THE SUPPORT

To find out more call

020 3194 3399

Discover your Future at the University of Lincoln - Lincoln School of Humanities.

Where exceptional individuals make a world of difference.

The University of Lincoln is a dynamic and exciting place to be. It has seen a rapid rise in its reputation and is well known for its innovative teaching and research excellence. The University is investing in the future and is now seeking to appoint a number of key academics in the School of Humanities.

The School currently offers programmes in English and History with strong student recruitment and a growing postgraduate community. The School has a vibrant and active research culture amongst the staff which also informs teaching at all levels.

The School is located within the College of Arts, one of three Colleges across the University and combines high-quality teaching and cutting edge research with a friendly and supportive atmosphere.

The University of Lincoln wishes to recruit individuals who will help further develop the profile of the School. You will help us to strengthen our research activity, enrich the student experience and augment engagement with our wider communities.

Head of School

This senior post offers the perfect opportunity for a highly motivated and creative individual to lead the School into the next stage of its development. We seek an experienced academic manager and leader with an excellent research profile, who will inspire an already well-grounded team, extending the school's research profile and developing its programmes, particularly at postgraduate level. You will have a commitment to supporting interdisciplinary activity with interests across the Humanities, leading the strategic planning of the School and contributing to the development of strategy at College level. A Chair will be considered if the successful candidate meets the professorial criteria.

For an informal conversation about this opportunity, please contact Imogen Wilde at Harvey Nash on +44 (0) 207 333 1503 or 07791 938533 quoting Reference HN7282

Professor in Contemporary English Literature

The research profile of the School of Humanities has grown significantly over the last few years and we are now seeking to appoint a research leader for the group to enhance the profile and develop the direction of research in the English subject group.

We seek an exceptional individual with a strong international research track record. You will provide academic leadership and inspiration for our dynamic English specialists. You will be a world-leading researcher who has demonstrated the ability to win significant research funding with a track record of commitment to excellence in teaching.

For an informal conversation about this opportunity, please contact Imogen Wilde at Harvey Nash on +44 (0) 207 333 1503 or 07791 938533 quoting Reference HN7283

Lecturers in the School of Humanities (Early Career)

History and English are thriving and successful subject areas located in the School of Humanities. Having completed your PhD with a developing publication record you will be ambitious with clear plans to develop your reputation in your chosen field.

English Literature (2 posts)

We are seeking to further strengthen our teaching and research capacity by appointing talented individuals with strong research interests in English. We wish to appoint one lecturer with particular expertise in 19th Century literature.

Modern British History - Post 1945

A lecturer is required to contribute to the developing area of Modern British History at the University. The successful candidate will add to the expansion of this discipline by enhancing our research expertise.

For an informal conversation about these opportunities contact Dr Ian Packer at ipacker@lincoln.ac.uk

BISHOP
GROSSETESTE
UNIVERSITY

This is an opportunity to join a distinctive institution, driven by quality and mission, at an exciting stage in its development.

Bishop Grosseteste University (BGU) has a strong commitment to inclusion and excellence, originating from its Church of England foundation. An outstanding tradition in teacher training and education has been maintained as the University has diversified its subject portfolio in recent years. The university student satisfaction (NSS) scores are high, student employability rates are excellent and BGU finances are strong. Having recently achieved full University status and celebrated our 150th anniversary, we offer an opportunity to join a forward looking senior leadership team and contribute to future development.

Following the successful promotion of two previous post holders we wish to appoint two Deans.

DEAN OF ACADEMIC ENGAGEMENT REF: 1213/25
SALARY £65,800

As a member of the Senior Leadership Team reporting to the Vice Chancellor, you will have a key role in setting the overall strategic direction of the University. You will also have specific responsibility for the leadership and direction of Educational Development and Research, Student Recruitment and Admissions, Library Services, Student Advice, Learning Development and International activity. You will lead on the implementation of the University's Learning, Teaching and Assessment Strategy. You will be an energetic and dynamic leader, having a Doctorate in a relevant field and a track record of successful delivery in a senior role in at least one of the specific areas of activity. You will be able to build strong internal and external networks, have a clear vision and demonstrate an empowering management style.

DEAN OF THE SCHOOL OF CULTURE,
EDUCATION AND INNOVATION (SCEI) REF: 1213/24
SALARY £65,800

As a member of the Senior Leadership Team reporting to the Vice Chancellor, you will have a key role in setting the overall strategic direction of the University. You will also have specific responsibility for the leadership of SCEI. The school has a wide-ranging portfolio offering combined degrees in education-related, arts and humanities disciplines. You will be an energetic and dynamic leader, having a Doctorate in a relevant field and a track record of successful delivery in a senior academic role. You will be able to build strong internal and external networks, have a clear vision and demonstrate an empowering management style.

The deadline for applications is noon, Friday 5 April 2013.
Interviews will take place for the Dean of Academic Engagement on 8 and 9 May and for the Dean of SCEI on 20 and 21 May.

Application forms are available from our website at www.bishopg.ac.uk
Applications should be returned either electronically or by post to the HR Department, Bishop Grosseteste University Lincoln LN1 3DY. Enquiries can be emailed to recruitment@bishopg.ac.uk

To discuss the post informally please contact Professor Muriel Robinson, Vice Chancellor at muriel.robinson@bishopg.ac.uk

Bishop Grosseteste University values people and promotes equal opportunities.

www.bishopg.ac.uk

NOTTINGHAM
TRENT UNIVERSITY

College of Arts and Science
School of Education
Head of Partnership
Post No: E0871
£56,549 - £63,609 per annum
Clifton campus

NTU are seeking to appoint an experienced education leader to take a strategic role in embedding Partnership in all activities within the School of Education and establishing, maintaining and developing Partnerships with schools, colleges, employers and other external and internal stakeholders to achieve the mission and strategic objectives of the School.

This new post will influence and drive the development of an innovative and dynamic partnership model for teacher education and education related areas. Working as a senior manager within the School, and as part of the School Executive, the post holder will be responsible for building on our partnership success and shaping the future of the School of Education.

We are looking for an experienced manager with extensive experience of partnership working and a strategic understanding of teacher education and education related areas. You will be able to build a team, drive improvement and embed partnership as our way of delivering high quality provision.

Closing date: 5pm on 21 April 2013.
Interview date: 7 May 2013.

To submit an online application for this position please visit www.ntu.ac.uk/vacancies

If you require documentation in alternative formats (e.g. Braille, large print) please contact us at job.vacancies@ntu.ac.uk

If you have any specific queries in relation to this position, please contact Dr Gill Scott, Dean of School of Education on +44 (0)115 848 8918, or via email gill.scott@ntu.ac.uk

Nottingham Trent University is committed to promoting equality and valuing diversity and we seek people who share those values.

Applications from candidates who require Tier 2 sponsorship to work in the UK will be considered alongside other applications. However, candidates who require sponsorship will not be appointed if a suitably qualified, experienced and skilled settled worker is available due to the UK Border Agency requirements for sponsorship. For further information on this please visit the UK Border Agency website.

www.ntu.ac.uk

FREE online recruitment advertising for support roles*

Unique to Times Higher Education, this exclusive offer is designed to support ALL UK universities.

*Excludes senior management, heads of department, leaders, lecturers, fellowships, tutors, researchers, academic support and salaries of £45,000 per annum and above. Free until 31 August 2013.

THE SUPPORT

To find out more call

020 3194 3399

Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Strategic Planning and Research)

Manchester Metropolitan is one of the largest universities in the country, offering a comprehensive curriculum with an emphasis on vocational professional accreditation. In the final stages of a £350m capital programme, the University has invested heavily in its infrastructure to support teaching, learning and research, and now boasts world-class facilities.

By 2014, it will be consolidated in two campus locations – a city centre campus in Central Manchester (for the first time in its history) and the multi-disciplinary Cheshire campus in Crewe. The University has a diverse, 38,000-strong student population and is one of the most popular universities in the UK. Successful student outcomes and graduate employability are top priorities, along with financial and environmental sustainability.

The current vacancy is due to the promotion of the present incumbent to a Vice-Chancellor position. With university-wide responsibility for all aspects of strategic and operational planning as well as research and academic enterprise, the new Deputy Vice-Chancellor will also co-ordinate all student recruitment related activities and have direct oversight of four Deans (half the institution's faculties). Deputising for the Vice-Chancellor as required, the post holder will be a world-class academic leader with the requisite credibility to join a high-performing senior team and make a significant contribution to the leadership of one of the UK's most successful universities.

For further information, including details of how to apply, please visit www.odgersberndtson.co.uk/42976.

Closing date: Monday 29th April 2013.

Manchester Metropolitan University

The University for World-Class Professionals

Guardian Award for Student Experience 2013

ODGERS BERNDTSON

Executive Search

Over 50 Offices in 29 Countries

Faculty of Arts, Professional and Social Studies

Director of the Liverpool Business School

Salary negotiable

Vacancy Ref: 455

The University is seeking to appoint an inspiring academic leader with responsibility for the development and management of taught programmes, research, knowledge transfer, enterprise, international and collaborative activity in the Liverpool Business School. In addition to a sustained record of achievement in an appropriate subject discipline, the successful candidate will also be expected to have experience in working with external stakeholders, including relevant professional bodies.

This is an exciting opportunity for an outstanding individual to lead the largest School in the University at a time when we have a new strategic direction; the Director will have the opportunity to shape the future identity of the School and to contribute to Faculty and University management and development plans.

Informal enquiries for the post of Director of School may be made to Professor Roger Webster, Dean of Faculty on 0151 231 5016 or email: r.j.webster@ljmu.ac.uk

For further information and to apply online please visit our website: <http://www.ljmu.ac.uk/working-at-ljmu/>

Alternatively contact the HR Department on 0151 904 6130/6131 or email: jobs@ljmu.ac.uk

Closing date: 19 April 2013.

LJMU is committed to achieving equality of opportunity.

School of Music and Fine Art

The UK's European University

The University of Kent is one of the UK's most dynamic universities with a strong European and international presence. Our excellent RAE results reflect our world-leading research and, while we are currently increasing our postgraduate activities, our undergraduates continue to rate us one of the top universities in the country according to the National Student Survey.

Head of School of Music and Fine Art

Ref: HUM0347

From £59,156 plus an annual Head of School allowance of £7,985.

Applications are invited for the post of Head of the new School of Music and Fine Art, based at the Medway campus of the University of Kent.

This is an exciting opportunity to make an outstanding contribution to the leadership of a new and expanding School. The successful candidate will develop an inspiring vision for the School and provide strategic, academic and operational leadership.

The successful candidate will also be appointed to an on-going academic position within either the Department of Fine Art or the Department of Music & Audio Arts at a level commensurate with their experience and qualifications (Professor, Reader or Senior Lecturer).

Informal enquiries should be directed to Professor Karl Leydecker, Dean of Humanities, K.Leydecker@kent.ac.uk, 01227 823312.

For further details and to apply for this post please visit www.kent.ac.uk/jobs

The closing date for completed applications: 16th April 2013.

We actively promote equal opportunity in education and employment and welcome applicants from all sections of the community.

University of Kent

With long established campuses in Canterbury, Epsom, Farnham, Maidstone and Rochester, the University for the Creative Arts is committed to the extraordinary achievements of its students and staff and to the ambitious development of practice, research and enterprise cultures that enhance student experience, develop our courses and have an impact on society.

Professorial Opportunities at UCA

The Schools of Communication Design and Architecture are seeking to appoint Professors to lead practice, research and enterprise activities and play a key role in the implementation of the University's strategic plan.

You will have a successful track record of realising major initiatives in teaching, research and/or the public realm, with experience of teaching undergraduate and postgraduate students, supervising research students and a track record of outputs that will contribute to this and the next REF.

Professor of Communication Design

Full Time Post: 36.25 hours per week

Ref: 13-SURR605-01

£50,186 - £54,826 per annum

Epsom

The School of Communication Design comprises of ten highly regarded undergraduate and postgraduate programmes including graphic design, new media, advertising and illustration. The School has ambitious plans to expand its research activities, especially in the areas of existing and emerging technologies, information design and interaction and is seeking an outstanding designer who will help inform the future of our communication design programmes.

For an informal discussion about this post please contact Dr Roni Brown on 01372 202488

0.6fte Professor of Architecture

Part Time Post: 21.75 hours per week

Ref: 13-KENT287-01

£30,112 - £32,896 per annum

Canterbury

The School of Architecture at UCA has been educating architects at Canterbury for over 60 years, and offers design orientated undergraduate and postgraduate courses in architecture, interiors and design for theatre and film. The School has ambitious plans to expand its research activities, especially in the areas of Design Activism, Sustainable Futures, Urbanism and Material Cultures and is seeking an outstanding architectural practitioner who can make a significant contribution to this agenda.

For an informal discussion about this post please contact Mark Little on 01634 888797

An application form and further details are available to download from our website, www.ucreative.ac.uk/jobs. Alternatively contact the Human Resources Department on HR@ucreative.ac.uk or 01252 892681 (24 hours) quoting the relevant reference. Please note any CVs submitted without a completed application form will not be considered for shortlisting.

The closing date for receipt of all applications is 14 April 2013.

For interview dates please visit our website.

We value the diversity of our organisation and welcome applicants from all sections of the community.

www.cardiff.ac.uk/jobs

Cardiff School of English, Communication and Philosophy

Senior Lecturer or Reader in English Literature (Grade 8)

Candidates will have an established national, or emerging international, reputation for excellence in research and a commitment to teaching and to public engagement in Renaissance Literature.

(Vacancy no. 854BR)

Lecturer in English Literature (Grade 6/7)

Candidates will demonstrate promise of a high-quality REF return and of a distinguished future research profile in Contemporary Literature and/or Critical Theory, with capacity to teach in both of these areas.

(Vacancy no. 852BR)

Lecturer in English Literature (Grade 6/7)

Candidates will have experience in the teaching of Modernism and Twentieth-Century Literature. The appointment will be made on Cardiff's 'Teaching & Scholarship' career pathway, which offers the opportunity for career development to Chair level, with an emphasis on excellence in learning and teaching, scholarship and innovation.

(Vacancy no. 876BR)

For informal enquiries regarding these posts, please contact the Head of School, Professor Martin A. Kayman (+44 (0)29 2087 6049; KaymanM@cardiff.ac.uk).

Salary: Grade 6 - £30424 to £36298 per annum

Grade 7 - £38522 to £44607 per annum

Grade 8 - £45941 to £53233 per annum (Senior Lecturer)

Grade 8 - £54826 to £56467 per annum (Reader)

All posts are available from 1 September 2013.

To work for an employer that values and promotes equality of opportunity, please visit www.cardiff.ac.uk/jobs and search for the relevant vacancy number.

Make sure your advert is seen by the highest calibre of candidates - advertise in the THE

Call 020 3194 3399
Email recruitment@timeshighereducation.co.uk

FREE online recruitment advertising for support roles*

Unique to Times Higher Education, this exclusive offer is designed to support ALL UK universities.

*Excludes senior management, heads of department, leaders, lecturers, fellowships, tutors, researchers, academic support and salaries of £45,000 per annum and above. Free until 31 August 2013.

THE SUPPORT

To find out more call

020 3194 3399

UNIVERSITÄT BASEL

The Faculty of Science of the University of Basel invites applications for two professorships (with tenure or tenure track) in pure mathematics in the Department of Mathematics and Computer Science, starting 1st February 2014.

The successful candidates are expected to perform independent research work of high quality in pure mathematics, with a preference given to researchers working in areas related to algebra, geometry or number theory. A strong commitment to excellence in teaching and research is essential.

The University of Basel is an equal opportunity employer. Women are strongly encouraged to apply.

Applicants should provide a curriculum vitae, a publication list indicating the five most significant papers, a statement of current and future research plans, and reports on teaching experience, together with the names and addresses of five potential referees. Applications should be sent by e-mail to Prof. Dr. Jörg Schibler, Dean, Faculty of Science, University of Basel, Klingelbergstrasse 50, 4056 Basel, Switzerland, to: dekanat-philnat@unibas.ch

The deadline for application is 20th May 2013.

For additional information please contact:
Prof. Dr. Helmut Harbrecht, Section of Mathematics, University of Basel, Rheinsprung 21, 4051 Basel, Switzerland, helmut.harbrecht@unibas.ch or <http://www.math.unibas.ch>

Strategy & Innovation

Lecturer/Senior Lecturer in Strategy and Innovation

Location: Highfield Campus

Salary: £27,854 to £57,743

Full Time Permanent

Closing Date: Sunday 14 April 2013

Interview Date: To be confirmed

Reference: 213313TR

Benefiting from its position within the research-oriented culture of a Russell Group University, within the Faculty of Business and Law, led by Professor Jeremy Howells, the School of Management at the University of Southampton has high ambitions.

To support our plans, we are seeking to build on our strengths in a number of disciplines, including Strategy, Entrepreneurship and Innovation. The Management School, led by Professor Malcolm Higgs, would like to hear from applicants with research and teaching interests within these broad areas.

You will have a PhD or equivalent, and will be able to demonstrate a research track record of high-quality publications and research grant income, together with clear plans for current and future research. You will also have experience of teaching and assessment of students, course co-ordination and curriculum development. Ideally you would also have experience of working with organisations on strategy/entrepreneurship/innovation issues, either as a practitioner or on a consultancy basis.

For an informal discussion about the post, please contact either Professor Malcolm Higgs (02380 597788 or Malcolm.Higgs@soton.ac.uk) or Professor Michelle Lowe (02380 595443 or M.Lowe@soton.ac.uk).

The closing date is 14 April 2013. Please apply online through www.jobs.soton.ac.uk or alternatively telephone 02380 592750 for an application form, stating reference number 213313TR in your request and all correspondence.

We aim to be an equal opportunities employer and welcome applications from all sections of the community.

THE QUEEN'S
ANNIVERSARY PRIZES
FOR HIGHER AND FURTHER EDUCATION
2011 www.jobs.soton.ac.uk

Over 64%
of THE website visitors are from outside the UK*.

Reach a global audience of higher education professionals.

* Adobe SiteCatalyst (Omriature), Sep 2011 - May 2012, avg. excluding WUR spikes

Call 020 3194 3399
Email recruitment@timeshighereducation.co.uk

NUI MAYNOOTH

Ollscoil na hÉireann Má Nuadh

National University of Ireland Maynooth

Faculty of Social Sciences

The National University of Ireland Maynooth (NUI Maynooth) is the fastest growing university in Ireland with over 8,500 students and outstanding research and scholarship in the sciences, humanities and social sciences. The university is now entering a new and exciting phase of its development, with a new strategic plan centred on further enhancing our academic programmes, providing a distinctive student experience of the highest quality, focusing our research activities on a small number of priority themes, and further internationalising the university. To support this development, the university is seeking to recruit outstanding academics, with a strong track record of research and teaching, to the following positions:

1. Professor of Business and Head of Department
2. Professor of Law and Head of Department
3. Professor of Education and Head of Department
4. Professor in National Institute for Regional and Spatial Analysis (NIRSA)
5. Lecturer in Education: Psychology of Education
6. Lecturer in Education: Science Education
7. Lecturer in Education: Language Education
8. Lecturer in Sociology of Education
9. Lecturer in Sociology

For job specifications and application information, please see <http://humanresources.nuim.ie/vacancies.shtml>

The deadline for applications for Professorial posts is 28th April 2013.

The deadline for applications for Lecturer posts is 14th April 2013.

National University of Ireland Maynooth is an equal opportunities employer

School of Business and Economics

The School of Business & Economics at Loughborough University is a leading international player in research and teaching across business, management, finance and economics. Consistently rated as one of the UK's top-ten universities for business and management in national league tables, Loughborough is also one of an international elite of institutions to have both EQUIS accreditation for its Business and Management activities and an AMBA accredited MBA. The School is a vibrant, challenging and respected institution, which operates at the cutting edge of academic research.

Professor

Minimum £54,826 per annum (Ref: REQ13123)

Senior Lecturer/Reader

£47,314 - £53,233 per annum (Ref: REQ13128)

Lecturer

£33,230 - £36,298 per annum or
£37,382 - £44,607 per annum (Ref: REQ13125)

Human Resource Management and/or Organisational Behaviour

We are looking to substantially grow our Human Resource Management and Organisational Behaviour discipline group, by recruiting to posts at Lecturer, Senior Lecturer, Reader or Professor level. The successful candidates will be expected to contribute to our taught postgraduate programmes in the area of HRMOB and will be located within the HRMOB discipline group, but will be expected to collaborate with developments across the School. It is anticipated that the successful applicants will have either a growing or an established record in publishing in journals of international quality.

Closing date 22 April 2013. Visit our website for further information.

www.lboro.ac.uk/jobs

University of Essex

The School of Biological Sciences provides a multi-disciplinary research environment with top class research facilities from fully equipped cell and molecular biology laboratories to state-of-the-art bio-imaging, proteomics and biophysical facilities. We are now seeking to establish a Genomics Research Group with the appointment of three new members of academic staff.

Professor in Genomic/Epigenetics

(Ref. PR919) You should have an outstanding international reputation, an excellent publication record and a track record in obtaining significant external grant support. You will provide research leadership to establish the genomics research group. Duties will also include teaching and administration.

Salary will be commensurate with experience and achievements and no less than £54,826 per annum.

Lecturers in Genomic/Epigenetics/ Bioinformatics

(Ref. ACR920) You should have a track record of high quality outputs and be able to demonstrate that you have the ability to establish an independent research programme funded by external grant support. Duties will also include teaching, administration and the supervision of postgraduate research students.

Salary: £37,382 - £44,607 per annum

Closing date for both posts: 21 April 2013

Apply online. If you have a disability and would like information in a different format telephone (01206) 873521/874588.

<http://jobs.essex.ac.uk>

Make sure your advert is seen by the highest calibre of candidates - advertise in THE

Call 020 3194 3399
Email recruitment@timeshighereducation.co.uk

University of Bedfordshire

www.beds.ac.uk

Health and Social Sciences – Sports Therapy

Principal Lecturer in Sports/ Physical Therapy

Ref: ACHS4934

Salary: £47,314 - £53,233

Permanent, Full time

This post represents an excellent opportunity for a talented academic to develop their higher education leadership profile while leading the delivery of our high quality teaching in sports/physical therapy at our Luton Campus.

You would be expected to manage delivery of our BSc Sports Therapy programme, our two Masters sports/physical therapy programmes along with other courses in the Division's portfolio. You would be expected to be research active and to contribute to the research and enterprise of the Division, while also maintaining your professional development and your external professional networks and relationships.

You should have a doctorate in Sports Therapy (or a related discipline) or be of equivalent professional standing. Additionally, you should have experience of working in Physiotherapy/Sports Therapy (or a related field) in a clinical setting. You will need a track record of effective leadership in higher education as well as a desire to continue to actively pursue your research career.

Informal enquiries are welcomed and can be made to the Head of the Division, by email to Lucy.O'Driscoll@beds.ac.uk

To apply please download an application form and job description from our website: <https://www.beds.ac.uk/jobs/vacancies/academic/principal-lecturer-in-sports-physical-therapy>

Please quote the reference number and job title when applying.

Please note CVs will only be accepted in addition to a fully completed application form.

Closing date: Friday 26th April 2013 at 12 noon.

Interview date: Friday 24th May 2013.

'The University is committed to equality of opportunity and values the diversity of all its workforce and student population'.

We offer:

- Attractive Holiday Entitlement
- Final Salary Pension Scheme
- Excellent Staff Development Opportunities
- Additional Benefits

SCHOOL OF HUMANITIES

The Portland Chair in New Testament Studies

Professor Scale: £54,826 - £67,395 pa

The University of Gloucestershire is seeking to appoint an outstanding scholar and academic leader to our endowed Chair in New Testament Studies. This professorial post offers the right candidate an opportunity to build on the University's distinguished tradition of research and teaching in theology, which remains an important part of our historic Anglican identity.

The Portland Chair at the University of Gloucestershire is endowed by the Sir Kirby Laing Foundation. It is one of the University's most distinguished posts held by an eminent scholar in Biblical interpretation. The Chair is a central component of the University's Anglican evangelical foundation which dates back to the 1840s.

The University of Gloucestershire is now seeking to appoint an outstanding scholar as successor to the present incumbent, Professor Andrew Lincoln, to continue and to build upon the excellence established by him since his appointment in 1999. The successful candidate must have an evident interest in and commitment to the theological interpretation of the Bible. The post is expected to commence from September 2013.

The Portland Chair is located in the School of Humanities. The Chair leads the International Centre for Biblical Interpretation (ICBI) and is instrumental in the operation and strategic direction of Theology and Religious Studies at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels. There are two active research centres in the subject area: the ICBI and the Centre for Bible & Spirituality. There are two undergraduate programmes: Religion, Philosophy & Ethics and Theology & Religious Studies. Currently, three eminent professors work in the area. Theology as a Unit has been entered in the last three RAEs with successful outcomes, and is being prepared for the 2014 REF.

For further information about the work of the Portland Chair and the School of Humanities please visit: <http://insight.glos.ac.uk/academicschools/dh/research/humsresearch/ICBI/Pages/default.aspx>

For an informal discussion please contact the Head of Humanities, Dr Shelley Saguaro, on 01242 714714.

Further details and an application form are available from our website www.glos.ac.uk/jobs or the Human Resources Department (email: hr@glos.ac.uk or telephone: 01242 715034). Please quote reference number A716.

Closing date: 25 April 2013

Interview date: Week commencing 27 May 2013

The University of Gloucestershire celebrates diversity and is committed to providing equal opportunities for all staff and students. The University of Gloucestershire is committed to sustainability.

FREE
online recruitment advertising

THE SUPPORT

Quick and easy. Advertise your professional support roles online for FREE

Call 020 3194 3399 or visit www.timeshighereducation.co.uk/support
Email your support roles to: support@timeshighereducation.co.uk

*Excludes senior management, heads of department, leaders, lecturers, fellowships, tutors, researchers, academic support and salaries of £45,000 per annum and above. Free until 31 August 2013.

Leeds Trinity University

Leeds Trinity University is a Higher Education institution which offers a high quality learning experience to its students. Applications are invited for the following posts:

Senior Lecturer in Physical Education and Sport (1.0fte)

Starting salary in the range £37,382 to £40,834 per annum

The person appointed to this post will join our successful department of Sport, Health and Nutrition, responsible for and contributing to the delivery of P.E. and Sport pedagogy and practical sport modules. The successful applicant will also contribute to other modules relating to the social specific aspects of young people and sports - organising and managing sport and all aspects of the P.E. national curriculum. Applicants should have a good honours degree in a relevant discipline, knowledge and experience of practical sports coaching and knowledge in P.E. and sport pedagogy. Knowledge and expertise in psychosocial aspects of sport and physical activity are also required. A Masters or Doctorate in a relevant discipline would be advantageous.

Please note that this post is subject to an enhanced DBS check.

CLOSING DATE FOR APPLICATIONS: Wednesday 10th April 2013

Lecturer/Associate Senior Lecturer in Sport, P.E. and Health (1.0fte)(Maternity Cover)

Starting salary in the range £30,424 to £36,298 per annum (pro-rata)

The person appointed to this post will join our successful Department of Sport, Health and Nutrition and contribute to the social scientific, pedagogic and practical modules including delivery on the 3 year, 2 year and Foundation degree in Supporting Learning: Sport, P.E. and Health. Applicants should have a good honours degree and hold a PGCE/QTS. Knowledge of young people, sport and physical activity, and knowledge and expertise in psychosocial aspects of sport, physical activity and health are essential requirements for this position. Knowledge of a range of school and community health promotion initiatives would be advantageous, as would sports coaching qualifications.

Please note that this post is subject to an enhanced DBS check.

CLOSING DATE FOR APPLICATIONS: Wednesday 10th April 2013

We offer an excellent range of benefits including generous holiday entitlements, staff development opportunities and a pension scheme.

Further details for both roles and an application pack are available from: <http://www.leedstrinity.ac.uk/aboutus/jobs/>

Alternatively please contact the Human Resources Department, tel. 0113 2837313 or email l.thompson@leedstrinity.ac.uk

Leeds Trinity University has an Equality and Diversity Policy. We welcome applications from all parts of the community.

www.leedstrinity.ac.uk

UEA University of East Anglia

FACULTY OF SCIENCE

School of Pharmacy

Lecturer in Cell or Molecular Biology or Pharmacology • Ref: ATR1131

£38,522 to £44,607 per annum (Full time – indefinite)

We are seeking to recruit a talented, ambitious and dynamic new faculty member as part of our investment in the School of Pharmacy at UEA. The position will build on existing research and teaching excellence and foster interdisciplinary collaboration across the School, Faculty, University and our partner Institutes in the Norwich Research Park.

The School of Pharmacy has been ranked number 1 in the UK for the last two years (Guardian League Table) and was the highest ranked new school in the last RAE.

The post will further strengthen our research profile while underpinning our commitment to providing an outstanding educational experience to our students.

If you believe you could contribute to, and enhance, our profile as the top School of Pharmacy in the UK, we would welcome your application for the above opportunity.

This is a new appointment that extends the opportunity to perform research and teaching at the highest level.

A lectureship in Cell or Molecular Biology or Pharmacology represents an opportunity for an individual to develop their teaching skills and to strengthen the School's research, with the aim of becoming an international leader within this area.

To arrange an informal discussion please contact:

Professor Mark Searcey, Head of the School of Pharmacy, +44 (0)1603 592026 or m.searcey@uea.ac.uk

Closing date: 12 noon on 25 April 2013.

The above post is available from 1 September 2013 or as soon as possible thereafter. Full details of the post along with other information about the University of East Anglia, the Faculty of Science and the School of Pharmacy are available at www.uea.ac.uk/hr/jobs/ or Tel. 01603 593493.

The University of Edinburgh

The University of Edinburgh is an exciting, vibrant, research led academic community offering opportunities to work with leading international academics whose visions are shaping tomorrow's world.

College of Humanities and Social Science

School of History, Classics & Archaeology

Temporary Lectureship in Roman History

£37,382 - £44,607

Applications are invited from scholars of the highest calibre with research interests and teaching experience in Roman history. An ability to contribute to the teaching and supervision of Roman imperial history at undergraduate level is required.

This appointment is tenable from 1 September 2013 for 10 months to cover the temporary absence of the current postholder.

Apply online, view further details or browse more jobs at our website. Ref: 011947. Closing date: 15 April 2013.

Committed to Equality and Diversity

The University of Edinburgh is a charitable body, registered in Scotland, with registration number SC005336.

www.ed.ac.uk/jobs

THE Times Higher Education

In print, online, on the move.

Wide range of advertising opportunities available.

Call 020 3194 3399
Email recruitment@timeshighereducation.co.uk

Research Assistant/ Associate in Law

The Open University Law School
£27,854 - £36,298 Ref: 8250
Temporary contract for 2 years
Based in Milton Keynes

The Open University

Law School

The Open University Law School wish to appoint a Research Assistant or Associate to work in close conjunction with Professor Jane Frecknall-Hughes and other academic colleagues with the Law School contributing to several research projects, including:

- taxation and organisational form;
- taxation and the multinational enterprise (including transfer pricing);
- tax planning (including tax avoidance);
- aspects of tax behaviour and decision making;
- the ethics and morality of taxation;
- tax practice and the tax profession (especially the development of the taxation profession in the UK); and
- taxation and financial history (various aspects).

You will have a relevant research degree, or equivalent, and desirably, a PhD. You will also have a good research record and experience as a law/ taxation researcher. You must have a passion for research and be able to work under your own initiative and work well within a team environment.

For detailed information and how to apply go to www.open.ac.uk/employment, or email oubs-recruitment@open.ac.uk, quoting the reference number. Closing date for electronic applications: 12 noon on 18 April 2013. Interviews will be held on 16 May 2013.

We promote diversity in employment and welcome applications from all sections of the community.

Academic Division for Education, Professional and Community Studies

Senior Lecturers: Early Years and Childhood Studies

Post 1: G1/3242 Full-time/Fixed-term until 31.3.15

Post 2: G1/3297- Full-time/Fixed-term for 18 Months

Grade 9: £38,522 - £44,607 pa pro-rata

Manchester Metropolitan University is one of the UK's largest and most popular Universities. We are the University for World Class Professionals.

The Faculty of Education has a strong national reputation for its work across the education disciplines and professions. In 2010/11, its primary and secondary teacher training provision was judged to be outstanding by Ofsted. It is also widely recognised for its innovative commercial projects and is judged internationally excellent in educational research. The faculty is a vibrant, creative and exciting place to work with a supportive management team that encourages fresh ideas.

The Centre also co-hosts, with the faculty Projects Office, the Early Years Professional/Teacher Status (EYPS/EYTS) Northern Alliance. MMU was one of the original Early Years Professional Status (EYPS) pilot organisations in 2006 and subsequently offered all EYPS training pathways. Since 2012, MMU has had a new contract to deliver EYPS (and will deliver EYTS from September 2013) as the 'prime organisation' leading a consortium of higher education institutions across the north of England (the 'Early Years Professional/Teacher Northern Alliance').

Following the secondments of two members of the team to promoted posts within the university, we are looking to invite two committed, enthusiastic, suitably qualified and experienced individuals to join us to teach on and take management responsibilities, within the Early Years and Childhood Studies Programmes. The posts are to cover these secondments and between the two posts, we are looking to recruit candidates with particular interests in health and social care/work, inclusive education and SEN and early years and primary education.

Successful experience in working with children and families in a variety of contexts, in providing effective professional development and/or in higher education would offer a suitable basis for application. The post is subject to enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service checks.

For an informal discussion regarding the requirements of the role please contact Jonathan Doherty (j.doherty@mmu.ac.uk), telephone 0161 247 2071.

For more information and to apply online, visit <http://www.mmu.ac.uk/jobs>
If you do not have access to the internet, or require an application in an alternative format, please contact Human Resources on 0161 247 3502 quoting the relevant reference number. Closing date for receipt of applications is midnight on 18th April 2013.

MMU values diversity and welcomes applications from all sections of the community.

www.jobs.mmu.ac.uk

The University for World-Class Professionals

NUI Galway
OĒ Gaillimh

Applications are invited for the following post:

College of Medicine, Nursing & Health Sciences

• Lecturer (Below the Bar) in Podiatry

Closing date: Thursday, 25th April 2013.

Application details/procedure:

For further information and to make an application for the above post please visit www.nuigalway.ie/about-us/jobs/

National University of Ireland, Galway is an equal opportunities employer.

www.nuigalway.ie

G1233 College of Medicine Podiatry 12x2 THES

University of Portsmouth
Department for Curriculum and Quality Enhancement (DCQE)

Principal Lecturer in Higher Education

Principal Lecturer in Higher Education, Head of the Academic Professional Excellence (APEX) Framework

Salary: £45,941–£53,233
Closing date: 12 April 2013
Interview date: 23 May 2013
Reference: 10007865

This key senior post is based in the Department for Curriculum and Quality Enhancement (DCQE) and we are seeking to appoint an energetic, engaging and imaginative person to join our vibrant team and provide leadership of the University's new Academic Professional Excellence (APEX) Framework.

The University has invested in the new APEX Framework which consists of a recognition and reward scheme and six individual pathways to internal and external accreditation aligned with the UK Professional Standards Framework. The APEX Framework is in its first year of operation and this new post provides an exciting opportunity for you to work with a small team to shape its further development and implementation.

You will be educated to doctoral level, have professional credibility and an excellent knowledge of current learning, teaching and student support issues; you will be able to demonstrate excellent practice in teaching, have excellent communication skills and have or be working towards Senior or Principal Fellowship of the HEA.

For informal enquiries please contact Dr Valda Bunker, Director of Curriculum and Quality Enhancement on +44 (0)23 9284 3568 or email valda.bunker@port.ac.uk.

To find out more about the University of Portsmouth and this role, visit <https://port.engageats.co.uk> and apply online. It is the policy of the University to only accept applications submitted using the University's application form.

www.port.ac.uk

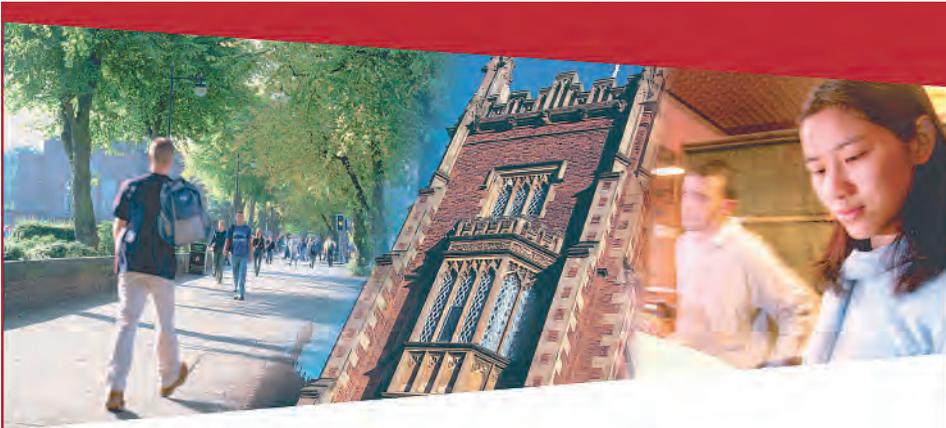

Make sure your advert is seen by the highest calibre of candidates - advertise in THE

Call 020 3194 3399
Email recruitment@timeshighereducation.co.uk

Queen's University Management School

Queen's University Management School (QUMS) - which enjoys an international reputation as a top 20 UK management school and a first class research institute for the business sciences - has a bold ambition. We aim to grow into a global leading Management School and we are seeking to reinforce our academic reputation by appointing academic leaders in Finance at lecturer level.

Our mission is to become a first class management school that endeavours to deepen understanding of how markets, trade networks, (international) business organisations and social institutions behave and to produce graduates who possess integrity, creativity and academic excellence.

Applications are now sought for the following position from outstanding individuals with the desire and potential to contribute to the further development of Queen's University Management School:

Lecturer in Finance

Ref: 13/102561

The successful applicant will be a committed teacher as well as have the potential to publish in journals of an international standard in any field of Finance. Applicants from any field in Finance are welcome to apply.

Informal enquiries may be directed to Dr Gareth Campbell, telephone: 028 90974821 or email: gareth.campbell@qub.ac.uk.

Anticipated interview date: May 2013

Salary scale: £33,230 - £48,729 per annum (including contribution points)
Closing date: Monday 22 April 2013

Please visit our website for further information and to apply online - www.qub.ac.uk/jobs or alternatively contact the address below.

The University is committed to equality of opportunity and to selection on merit. It therefore welcomes applications from all sections of society and particularly welcomes applications from people with a disability.

Personnel Department
Queen's University Belfast

Belfast, BT7 1NN.
Tel (028) 90973044
Fax (028) 90971040
E-mail on personnel@qub.ac.uk

RUSSELL INTERNATIONAL EXCELLENCE GROUP
A Russell Group university: one of the UK's leading research-intensive universities.

HERTFORD COLLEGE OXFORD

The Drapers' Company Junior Research Fellowship

The College invites applications for a Junior Research Fellowship in the Humanities, which has been generously funded by the Drapers' Company and will be tenable for a non-renewable fixed-term of three years from 1st October 2013 until 30 September 2016. The Fellowship is open to graduates of any University who are of post-doctoral or equivalent standing and are already engaged in independent research. Eligible candidates should normally have submitted their doctoral thesis and have fewer than five years of post-doctoral research experience by the closing date; they should not normally already hold, or have held a Junior Research Fellowship in the Universities of Oxford or Cambridge. The stipend of £17,144 per annum will be indexed to academic salary rises and pensionable under the Universities Superannuation Scheme. The successful applicant will also be entitled to free meals and free accommodation (or a housing allowance in lieu), and to computer and research allowances.

Further details and an application form can be found at: <http://www.hertford.ox.ac.uk/about/vacancies> or obtained from the Principal's Secretary, Hertford College, Oxford OX1 3BW (principals.secretary@hertford.ox.ac.uk). Applications should be submitted to the Principal's Secretary by 12.00 noon on Friday 12 April 2013. Candidates should also ask their referees to send confidential references direct to the Principal's Secretary to arrive no later than 12.00 noon on Friday 12 April 2013. It is anticipated that shortlisted candidates will be interviewed on Friday 10 May 2013.

Hertford College is an equal opportunities employer.

UNIVERSITY OF TAMPERE

Require

University Lecturers in English Language/Literature Full-time/Permanent Start date: August 2013

The School of Language, Translation and Literary Studies at the University of Tampere invites applications for two full-time University Lectureships in the following fields:

- English Language (language skills, including pronunciation; the structure of language, language learning, and corpus linguistic research)
- English Literature (sixteenth- to nineteenth-century British literature, including Shakespeare)

The duties include undergraduate and postgraduate teaching and supervision, research, and administrative duties. The successful candidate has English as his/her first language or his/her language of education.

Detailed information, including contacts and the online application forms, can be accessed on the website of the University of Tampere at <http://www.uta.fi/english/news/vacancies.html>

Applications close: 15 April 2013

www.reading.ac.uk/jobs

Postdoctoral Researcher

Clinical Language Sciences

Grade 6: £27,854 - £36,298 per annum. Fixed term for 5 years.

We wish to appoint an outstanding Postdoctoral Researcher to work on a project investigating language and cognitive abilities in bilingual and multilingual children, for which you will be in charge of running a series of eye-tracking and behavioural protocols.

You will have a PhD in Linguistics, Psychology, Education or a related area and solid knowledge of psycholinguistics and language processing. You will have had experience in designing and implementing eye-tracking experiments for language as well as analysing and modelling eye-tracking data, with the ability to interact with primary school children.

Closing date: 1 May 2013.

To apply please visit www.reading.ac.uk/jobs or call +44(0)118 378 6771

Please quote the reference number RS13017.

We value a diverse workforce and welcome applications from all sections of the community

THE QUEEN'S ANNIVERSARY PRIZES
2009 & 2011

HireWire
For Higher Education

Transform your school recruitment process

HireWire is a free and easy to use online service that helps you effectively manage the entire recruitment process.

www.hirewire.co.uk