Head of School Harper and Keele Veterinary School Competitive salary

A unique partnership between two outstanding universities, the Harper and Keele Veterinary School brings together two distinctive institutions with a track record of excellence in teaching and student experience, to provide an exciting new opportunity for veterinary students to train within rural Staffordshire and Shropshire from 2020.

You will have a track record of success and leadership and as the founding Head of School, you will have the rare chance to shape the strategic direction of a new Veterinary School in the UK.

The University has engaged Perrett Laver to support the University in this appointment process and further information can be downloaded from their website at: www.perrettlaver.com

For informal enquiries about the role, please email Dr Urvashi Ramphul at Urvashi.ramphul@perrettlaver.com quoting reference number 3977.
