“ Working with THEunijobs has proven to be one of the best decisions I have made in my time working at King Abdulaziz University. Since starting our partnership with THEunijobs, we have been incredibly impressed with the service delivered; it has saved us hours of administrative work each month and has provided a fantastic reach to academic candidates around the world. We have seen a growth in interest for our vacancies, with an increase of more than 200 per cent in terms of applications received compared with the previous year. In addition to this, the day-to-day support has been brilliant – quick, helpful and personal. ”

Dean of the Faculty of Engineering

Here at the University of Bristol's Faculty of Engineering, we are renowned for the quality of our teaching, learning, research and scholarship.

We are currently at the early stages of an ambitious growth programme, which will deliver transformational change. This involves increasing the number of students at the Faculty, expanding our programmes and having an even greater international footprint. We also intend to make a major investment in physical spaces within the campus, and across the city, to support world-class research and teaching.

Your role as Dean will be to provide inspirational academic leadership and strategic management – enabling us to develop our change - education, research and partnerships.

Serving on the University Senate and Management Team – and responsible to the Deputy Vice-Chancellor and Provost – you will participate in the collective formulation and delivery of the University's overall academic strategy. You will also deliver the strategic development of the Faculty and foster wider engagement within the city and beyond.

Naturally, the role comes with a wide range of administrative and managerial duties in terms of budget management and the maintenance of robust staff review and development processes.

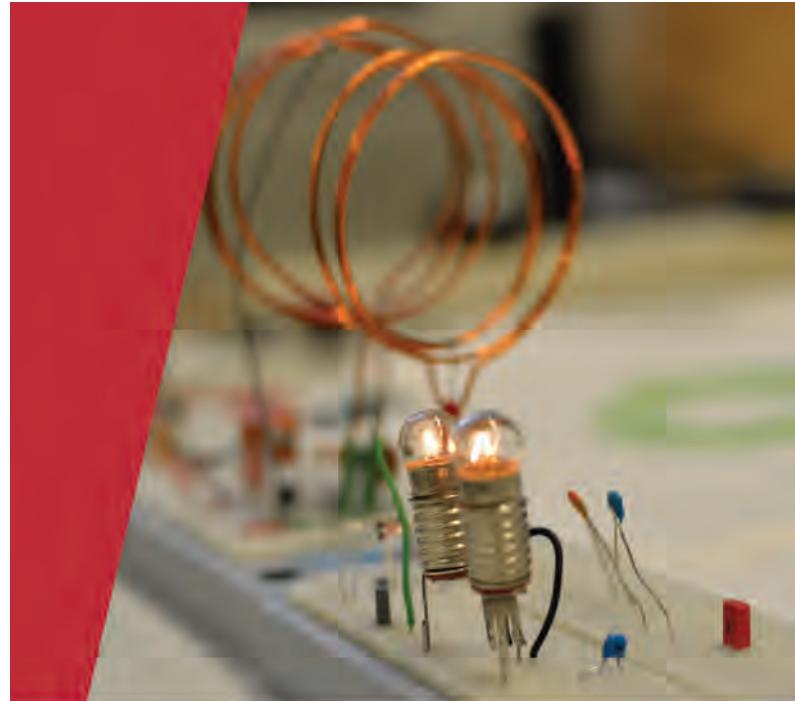

We are looking for an outstanding track record of academic leadership across disciplines, as well as the ability to lead and motivate a team of senior colleagues to ensure a culture of excellence. You will also have a demonstrable commitment to the promotion of equality, diversity and inclusion. Your academic standing should be commensurate with professorial status in one or more of the disciplines within the Faculty.

To apply visit bristol.ac.uk/jobs.

Closing date: Monday 8th October 2018.

Interview dates: Tuesday 20th & Wednesday 21st November 2018.

We appreciate and value difference, seeking to attract, develop and retain a diverse mix of talented people that will contribute to the overall success of Bristol and help maintain our position as one of the world's leading universities. We would in particular be happy to talk to candidates interested in flexible working.
