Pro-Vice-Chancellor (Research & Enterprise)

Highly competitive salary with a comprehensive set of benefits

Lancaster University is consistently placed as a top 10 UK university and is rated as world leading in the 2014 Research Excellence Framework (REF).

We are seeking to appoint an inspirational leader to the role of PVC (Research & Enterprise), who will lead, develop and deliver the strategic research and enterprise agenda, with a particular focus on leading the University's 2021 REF submission. The ability to develop and foster strong relationships and networks, is essential and the candidate must exhibit evidence of, or the ability to, lead major research initiatives along with a strong understanding of what is required to direct the challenges of a research strategy in a world top 100 university.

Our campus is located in a spectacular rural setting three miles from Lancaster city centre. We offer a comprehensive set of benefits encompassing a highly competitive salary, further salary progression and enhancements, pension scheme, good work-life balance, development opportunities and staff recognition schemes.

This post is full-time, with 0.2FTE to be allocated to other significant academic work e.g. research. A four year term will ideally commence on 1st August 2019 with the possibility for renewal for a further term and would overlay a substantive appointment in a relevant academic department.

We welcome applications from people in all diversity groups.

Closing date: 10 March 2019

Informal, preliminary interviews: 22 March 2019

Final interviews: 12 April 2019

Lancaster University - ensuring equality of opportunity and celebrating diversity.

THEunijobs

“ Times Higher Education has helped to foster another important dimension of diversity at Harvard: international diversity. The exposure of Harvard's faculty positions on THEunijobs, since we embarked on our subscription package in October 2015, enhances our outreach efforts to a global community and showcases our institution as a destination of choice for academics around the world. Working with the THE team has also been a pleasure, and has enriched the conversation around international recruitment and retention. ”

– Elizabeth Ancarana, assistant provost for faculty development and diversity, Harvard University
