VACANCIES IN FINANCE AND MANAGEMENT

The Business School at the University of Aberdeen is continuing an exciting and ambitious phase of its development. After substantial rounds of hiring in 2017 and 2018, the University is making a further major investment in a range of junior - and senior-level posts in Finance and Management. These appointments are to support the research profile in the School and the growing student numbers within Aberdeen, as well as our international partnerships in China and Qatar, and new online offerings.

As part of this investment the School is seeking to recruit Professors, Senior Lecturers and Lecturers in Finance and Management who can make a significant contribution to leadership in both research and teaching, as well as working to take forward the development of our research culture, capacities and outcomes.

We are looking for staff who can contribute to core teaching in the discipline. Although we are happy to consider any research specialism within each academic area, research areas for the disciplines in the following areas are particularly welcome:

FINANCE:

Corporate Finance, Empirical Finance, Banking or Asset Pricing

MANAGEMENT:

Entrepreneurship and Innovation, International Business, Leadership or Marketing
