The Faculty of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences (FLASS) was established as a strategic pathway to academic excellence for The Education University of Hong Kong (EdUHK) (formerly known as The Hong Kong Institute of Education), which enjoyed rapid expansion and significant transformation since its inception in 1994. Leveraging the vast experiences in interdisciplinary research and teaching of the University, the Faculty is committed to creating a learning environment conducive to nurture students to be intellectually active, engaging positively in local, regional and global affairs; and acting sensibly and proactively to promote social change and human betterment in the era of globalisation.

The Faculty comprises six academic departments and five centres including three research centres.

With strong research and academic links with regional and international institutions, the Faculty has adopted the overarching educational philosophy “Nurturing Caring Leaders with Global Vision”, which governs curriculum design and student learning. The FLASS dedicates to thrive and facilitate our students to become educators and social caring professionals.
