ACADEMIC ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

Requirements vary considerably between degree programs.

UNDERGRADUATE

You must hold qualifications that are deemed equivalent to an Australian Year 12 Senior Secondary Certificate of Education if you want to apply for an undergraduate course at La Trobe University.

These academic entry requirements are listed online:

latrobe.edu.au/study/how-to-apply/international/english-and-academic-requirements

Subject prerequisites

Some courses also require prior knowledge of a certain subject or subjects and these are listed in the Table of Courses under subject prerequisites. There are three levels of mathematics prerequisites plus science requirements:

Year 11 Mathematics – this refers to Victorian Certificate of Education (VCE) Units 1 and 2 of Mathematical Methods or General Mathematics in Australia, or an approved international equivalent.

Year 12 Mathematics – this refers to VCE Mathematical Methods and Further Mathematics in Australia, or an approved international equivalent.

Year 12 Advanced Mathematics – this refers to VCE Specialist Mathematics in Australia, or an approved international equivalent.

Biology, Chemistry and Physics – all science prerequisites need to be undertaken at Australian Year 12 level, or an approved international equivalent.

Please note: if you are applying on the basis of an Australian Year 12 result, refer to the cut-off (ATAR) score for 2015 as a reference only, for entry in 2016. See the Table of Courses (pages 8 to 17) and: vtac.edu.au

Honours year

Most Bachelor's degrees at La Trobe University offer an additional Honours year to high-achieving students by invitation only.

POSTGRADUATE COURSEWORK

Refer to the individual course descriptions online for specific admission requirements: latrobe.edu.au/courses

However, you are required to have, at a minimum:

- a Bachelor's degree from La Trobe University or another recognised university or educational institution, or
- a combination of qualifications and professional experience which, in the opinion of the college, is considered suitable preparation for entry to the proposed course of study, or
- an approved, international equivalent qualification.

Graduate or postgraduate diplomas

These are normally coursework programs that provide you with specialised knowledge. They generally require one year of study. Some programs may, however, include a research component if they are designed to prepare you for a Master's degree by research. Note: entry to certain Graduate or Postgraduate Diploma programs may require specific previous studies at undergraduate level. Refer to online individual course descriptions for details.

Master's degrees by coursework

These expand on studies at the Postgraduate Diploma or Honours level and usually involve advanced coursework and a minor thesis or major project. These programs aim to develop your conceptual, research and professional skills.

Note: entry to some Master's degree programs by coursework may depend on completion of a Postgraduate Diploma in a relevant discipline, or a degree with Honours in a relevant discipline. Refer to individual course descriptions for more details.

RESEARCH

As a research candidate applicant, you are required to have, at a minimum:

Master's by research

An Australian Master's degree or Australian Bachelor's degree with Honours at H2A level or an approved international equivalent. You must also provide evidence of research training. If you have Honours at H2B level you may still be considered in some instances.

Professional Doctorate

An Australian Master's degree at H2A level or Australian Bachelor's degree with Honours at H1 level or an approved international equivalent and at least three years of relevant professional work experience. You must also provide evidence of substantial research experience and expertise.

Doctor of Philosophy (PhD)

An Australian Master's degree at H2A level or Australian Bachelor's degree with Honours at H1 level or an approved international equivalent. You must also provide evidence of substantial research experience and expertise.

Find a supervisor

It is often difficult for prospective research candidates to make contact with a potential supervisor prior to coming to Australia. Our website lists academic staff and outlines their research backgrounds, interests and contact details.

Visit: latrobe.edu.au/research/future/find-a-research-supervisor

When contacting your proposed supervisor, write a brief email introducing yourself, your background and your proposed topic and including the following information:

- university academic transcripts and completion certificates
- your professional CV outlining relevant work experience, academic awards, prior research background etc.
- details of any publications
- a copy of your Master's thesis (if in English)
- a research proposal (no more than 300 words).

If a suitable supervisor is available, your next step will be to submit a formal application to La Trobe International. See: latrobe.edu.au/international/apply/how-to/research

If you are having problems finding a supervisor, then write to the postgraduate coordinator for your area of interest describing the research topic you would like to pursue. The coordinator will let you know whether your envisaged research project can be supported at La Trobe. If the suggested topic is not supported, the coordinator may suggest ways you can modify your aims so that they can be supported.

Note that your application will not be processed until supervision has been confirmed. For more information, visit:

latrobe.edu.au/study/contact/international/ask-a-question

Student Representative to Student First

'This marks my fifth year of being a student at La Trobe University, and through that time La Trobe's warm and people-centred approach has always stood out to me. The University continues to pave the way in delivering the best experience for us, its students.'

'I am fortunate to be involved in a new initiative in the tertiary education sector, pioneered by La Trobe: Student First – La Trobe's Customer Experience Improvement Program. This program furthers the people-centred culture at La Trobe with a commitment of putting students at the heart of everything the University does. With input from across the university, and through my role as Student Representative, the project stays connected to the very core of its purpose.'

'Importantly, this project is driven by research conducted by an external organisation to most accurately capture the sentiments of students. This ensures a genuine representation of the La Trobe community from which to gain insights.'

- for students commencing in the 2016 academic year only
- based on a standard full-time 120 credit point load and will vary depending on the program and your actual subject enrolment load. Tuition fees will increase if your subjects are above a 120 credit point load or if you have to repeat a subject.
- invoiced to you based on your actual credit point load for each semester
- inclusive of tuition, study support, workshops, Orientation and Enrolment programs, access to library and computing facilities, plus student counselling and academic assistance as required
- exclusive of the cost of text books, health insurance or living expenses such as food, accommodation, transport and medical costs
- subject to change each year. The University reserves the right to vary fees on an annual basis. Fees will not normally rise above 7 per cent per annum. Should the University decide to increase its fees, that increase will take effect on 1 January of the following year.

Refer to the University Handbook for information on the annual credit point load for each course: latrobe.edu.au/handbook

TUITION FEE REFUND POLICY

We may refund tuition fees (in whole or in part) where:

- the University can no longer provide the course being offered
- the University ceases to provide the course after it starts but before it is completed
- the Australian Government authorities refuse to grant a student an initial student visa before the commencement of his or her course (in which case students may be requested to provide proof of the date of their visa application)
- the University withdraws an offer
- there are exceptional circumstances that compel a student to withdraw from a course after the commencement date, such as illness or disability, death of a close family member, political or civil unrest or natural disaster in the student's home country. This decision is subject to you providing acceptable documentary evidence in support of a refund application to La Trobe University.

If you withdraw from a minimum of four weeks prior to the commencement date of your course (as specified on your Letter of Offer), you will receive a refund of 90 per cent of your tuition fees (a 10 per cent administrative fee is deducted).

If you withdraw before the close of business on the Census Date for the subject or course and are an international student in the first semester (or term) of enrolment, you will receive a 50 per cent refund for the subject/course. Continuing students will receive a 100 per cent refund.

- If you have a packaged offer (ELICOS, Foundation, Diploma) and CoE with one of our partner institutions, the deposit of up to AUD$6000 towards your La Trobe program will not be refunded and will be retained by La Trobe University if you:
 - do not successfully complete the program at the partner institution
 - transfer to another institution* or
 - return home upon completion of the partner institution program.

*If you apply to transfer to another institution on the completion of the partner institution program and meet the entry requirements of the La Trobe University degree, we will not provide you with a Letter of Release to provide to the Australian Government's Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP). A Letter of Release will only be provided to those students who are ineligible to commence at La Trobe and can only transfer to one of La Trobe's approved business and packaging partners.

Please see this website for a list of our institutions: latrobe.edu.au/study/how-to-apply/your-options/diploma-or-tafe-pathway

ADDITIONAL COSTS

You may have to pay additional costs such as a National Police Check, fieldwork trips, laboratory coats or art materials. Check the course descriptions for more information: latrobe.edu.au/courses

Healthcare costs

Refer to page 30 for compulsory health cover in Australia.

Honours year fee – undergraduate students only

Most undergraduate courses at La Trobe University offer an additional Honours year. Honours or a Master's preliminary year are separate degrees, so you would have to pay additional tuition fees.

Cross-institutional enrolment fees

You can choose to study a subject at another Australian university and count it towards your La Trobe degree. However, you should note the tuition fee for this subject will be paid to the other institution and may be different to the tuition fee payable at La Trobe University.

If you start in 2016, you'll need to allow for at least a four to five per cent increase in your living expenses. That's because these costs are based on 2015 prices and may vary in 2016.

Please also note total figures are for the 36 weeks of the academic year, not the full calendar year. Travel expenses for leisure have been excluded.

For further information on average living costs, including estimates for a couple with children, visit: latrobe.edu.au/international/living/costs

DID YOU KNOW?

Based on advice from the Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP), you should allow for approximately AUD$18 610 per year for living costs excluding tuition fees.

Please visit:

immi.gov.au/students/student-visa-living-costs.htm

And under a new State Government and La Trobe University trial, international students in an undergraduate or Diploma program will be eligible for a 50 per cent discount on annual public transport fares (excludes Sydney students): studymelbourne.vic.gov.au/transport/public-transport

STUDENT VISAS

It is your responsibility to ensure you obtain a valid passport and student visa before you enter Australia for study purposes.

As a holder of a student visa:

- You must undertake a CRICOS approved course.
- You must maintain satisfactory course progress and a valid enrolment for your chosen course of study.
- You and your family members must not work without permission. If you are given permission to work, you must not work more than 40 hours a fortnight (two weeks) during the semester, unless otherwise specified. Holders of Postgraduate Research (574) visas are permitted to work unlimited hours, however their rules of candidature have work restrictions.
- If you are under 18 years of age and you are not accompanied nor staying with a parent, eligible relative or legal custodian, you must have La Trobe University-approved welfare and accommodation arrangements. You cannot change your accommodation, support and welfare arrangements without written approval from La Trobe University.
- You must maintain your Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) or equivalent health cover for the duration of your student visa when you are in Australia.
- You must – within seven days of your arrival in Australia – inform your education provider (La Trobe University or your pathway provider) of your current residential address, and you must advise any changes of address within seven days.

For information on applying for a student visa, visit:
immi.gov.au/forms/Documents/applying-student.pdf

For further general information, visit:

immi.gov.au/students/student-information.htm

As a condition of a student visa you are required to complete your course within the duration stated on your CoE, unless:

- There are compelling or compassionate circumstances.
- You have taken an official Leave of Absence (intermitted or suspended) from your course.
- You have received Advanced Standing (credit) that affects your load during a relevant progression period.
- You have problems with academic progress, and have received permission from your College to study less than full-time mode (under-load).
- You fast-track and undertake subjects at times other than Semester 1 or 2, which count towards your course credits e.g. during Summer or Winter Semesters, which are non-compulsory study periods. This means that international students are generally expected to be enrolled in a full-time study load (120 credit points per academic year). For further information, visit:
internationaleducation.gov.au/Regulatory-Information/Education-Services-for-Overseas-Students-ESOS-Legislative-Framework/National-Code/nationalcodepartd/Pages/ExplanatoryguideD9.aspx

Assistance with visa applications is also available from the University's representatives:

latrobe.edu.au/international/registeredagents

Note: La Trobe University can provide information, not advice, concerning immigration matters.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS CAN WORK A MAXIMUM OF 40 HOURS A FORTNIGHT DURING SEMESTER. RESEARCH CANDIDATES HAVE DIFFERENT RESTRICTIONS.

EMPLOYMENT

You cannot work until you have commenced your course in Australia. Once your course has commenced you are permitted to work a maximum of 40 hours per fortnight when your course is officially in session, and unlimited hours when your course is officially not in session. A fortnight is equal to two weeks – from Sunday to Sunday. If you are doing voluntary, unpaid work, it is not included in the limit of 40 hours per fortnight if it:

- is of benefit to the community
- is for a non-profit organisation
- would not otherwise be undertaken in return for wages by an Australian resident (that is, it is a designated volunteer position)
- is genuinely voluntary (that is, no remuneration, either in cash or kind is received – board and lodging acceptable).

If you are a subclass 574 (Postgraduate Research) student visa holder and you have commenced your Master's by research or Doctoral degree in Australia, there is no limit on the number of hours you may work. You can also work unlimited hours during official University vacations once you have commenced your course in Australia. This includes any employment, volunteer work or work placement.

Note: in some university courses, study demands allow little time for employment. Part-time work and vacation work are not always available and you should not depend on this form of income to cover living expenses or tuition fees.

For up-to-date information on working while studying, visit: immi.gov.au/students/students/working_while_studying

ARE YOU UNDER 18 YEARS OF AGE?

Students under the age of 18 are required by the Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP) to have appropriate welfare and accommodation arrangements in Australia. In order to get a student visa, underage students will need to provide evidence that they will be living with a DIBP-approved guardian, or have welfare and accommodation arrangements approved by La Trobe University.

Option 1: DIBP's approved welfare arrangement

Students under the age of 18 must have their parents or legal custodian nominate a guardian who resides in Australia prior to DIBP considering their student visa application.

Parents or students must lodge the Nomination of a Student Guardian Form (157N) available at the Australian Embassy in their home country, or at: immi.gov.au/allforms/application-forms

DIBP requires this guardian to be over 21 years of age, an eligible relative and of good character.

Option 2: Welfare and accommodation arrangements as approved by La Trobe University

If an underage student does not have an eligible relative in Australia, the student will need to be supported by the services of La Trobe University's approved guardianship agencies and accommodation providers before the University will issue a CoE and a Confirmation of Appropriate Accommodation/Welfare (CAAW) Form.

latrobe.edu.au/students/new-students/international/visa/under18

HEALTH INSURANCE

Nearly all international students must have Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) before they are granted a student visa (Norwegian, Belgian, and some Swedish students do not need OSHC).

OSHC provides medical and hospital cover for you and your dependants while in Australia. La Trobe currently has an agreement with OSHC by Allianz Global Assistance, a private health fund, for the provision of OSHC. The University's policy is that you purchase health cover for the duration of your student visa. This one-off payment means you don't need to renew your OSHC each year and you can avoid any price increases during that period.

Note: you can purchase health cover through another approved insurance provider of your choice.

OSHC health cover options are:

Single – covers only the valid student visa holder.

Dual Family – covers one valid visa holder plus either one adult spouse or recognised de facto partner, or one or more dependent children.

Multi Family – covers one student visa holder plus more than one dependant. A dependant can only include one adult spouse or recognised de facto partner, or one or more dependent children.

OSHC rates for 2015

Length of Stay	Single Policy	Dual Family Policy	Multi Family Policy
6 months	AUD$322	AUD$850	AUD$1266
12 months	AUD$594	AUD$1643	AUD$2396
2 years	AUD$1198	AUD$3681	AUD$5628
3 years	AUD$1815	AUD$5506	AUD$8417

These rates are subject to change without notice and may increase in 2016. Read your OSHC by Allianz Global Assistance policy carefully. Overseas Student Health Cover is similar to public health cover for Australian citizens; however there may be significant upfront costs for some medical care.

Note: commencing students not using OSHC by Allianz Global Assistance must make payment arrangements with their provider directly and must provide proof of OSHC to:

- La Trobe International, before their CoE is released
- the Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP), before their student visa is issued.

A list of OSHC providers is available from the Department of Health: health.gov.au

If you are required to meet certain English language requirements, we recommend La Trobe Melbourne to help you reach the appropriate level. See page 6 or visit: latrobemelbourne.edu.au

Deferment, suspension and cancellation of enrolment for coursework students only

La Trobe University is obliged to notify the Department of Education (DE) if it defers, suspends, approves an official Leave of Absence, or cancels your enrolment.

These changes to your enrolment can affect your visa. The Department will record this change to enrolment and send the information to the Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP). We can only permit you to take an official Leave of Absence from your studies (or suspend your candidature) for up to 12 months for the following reasons: compassionate and compelling circumstances; where La Trobe University is unable to offer a prerequisite subject; or if you are unable to commence your course due to delays in receiving your student visa. Your enrolment may be cancelled due to non-payment of tuition fees.

Your enrolment may be suspended if you are found guilty of Academic Misconduct, or inappropriate conduct, or if you have conditions set by the Academic Progress Committee due to lack of academic progress.

If you have had your enrolment suspended by the University, you have 20 working days to appeal the suspension. Once 20 days have elapsed, or the internal appeals process has been completed and the decision to suspend upheld, you will be reported to the DIBP.
