The global university at the heart of an ambitious city
Welcome

We are proud to have been welcoming international students to our beautiful Edgbaston campus for over 100 years. We are an outward-looking, international institution, which has always and will continue to open its arms to staff and students from all nationalities and backgrounds. You are a central part of our community, bringing global experience, new ideas and an international outlook, which contribute to the academic and social richness of our global university.

At Birmingham we encourage bold, independent thinking and provide exceptional academic programmes that will stretch and challenge you. One of our strengths lies in understanding that every student is an individual with a unique learning style. For this reason you will benefit from enhanced personal tutoring alongside the latest learning facilities and new technologies, such as our virtual learning environment. Following the University’s recent outstanding performance in the Quality Assurance Association’s (QAA) Higher Education Review, our distinctive approach to research-led teaching and learning has been recognised again with a Gold rating in the UK’s new Teaching Excellence Framework (TEF).

The reputation of a great university depends not only upon the quality of education, but on the quality of research. The results of the last Research Excellence Framework (REF) in 2014 confirmed our position amongst a handful of institutions that can demonstrate world-leading or internationally renowned research across such a broad range of subjects.

We are committed to investing in our success and the University’s historic campus is undergoing one of the most exciting and transformational redevelopments since its original buildings were completed in 1900. As a student here you will benefit from a new library incorporating the latest IT learning technology, a new sports centre with 50-metre pool, and exceptional new student accommodation.

The University of Birmingham has a history of firsts, and in 2018 the University will open a campus in Dubai, demonstrating our ambition as an outward looking, world-class institution. The University of Birmingham Dubai will encompass our heritage, prestige and global renown, giving its pioneering first students the opportunity to benefit from a British education, that is recognised and valued by employers and academic institutions around the world. Birmingham is already recognised in the top one per cent of the world’s universities. This landmark development builds on our international teaching activities in Singapore and China and our extensive international research collaborations.

By choosing to study at Birmingham, you choose to join a forward-thinking, leading global university in a lively, multicultural city, set on a beautiful leafy estate, widely acknowledged as one of the world’s greatest university campuses. You will build lifelong friendships, and become part of a powerful global network of Birmingham alumni.

We look forward to welcoming you to campus, and to playing our part in your future success.

Professor Sir David Eastwood
Vice-Chancellor

WORLD’S OLDEST QUR’AN

Radiocarbon analysis has shown a Qur’an manuscript, held by the University, to be among the oldest in the world. The parchment on which the text is written has been dated to the period between AD568 and 645. Cadbury Research Library researchers concluded that this places the leaves close to the time of the Prophet Muhammad, and that the Qur’an manuscript is among the earliest written textual evidence of the Islamic holy book known to survive.

GRAVITATIONAL WAVES

These waves are tiny distortions of space-time caused by some of the most violent cosmic events such as colliding black holes. The observation of these ‘ripples of space-time’ requires exquisitely sophisticated new technology. Birmingham physicists have designed and built components for the most sensitive instruments in the world called Advanced LIGO, and developed the techniques essential to tease out the signatures of gravitational waves from the data. The four-kilometre LIGO detectors have just started observing, and the hunt for gravitational waves is on.

ANTIBIOTIC RESISTANCE

This is one of the greatest challenges to human health in the 21st century with global reliance on the use of antibiotics to treat bacterial infections threatened by the emergence of new resistant strains. With one of the largest groupings of microbiologists in the world, the University of Birmingham is pioneering innovative research into combating antimicrobial and antibiotic resistance. We do this with a three-pronged approach: diagnosis, treatment and prevention.

FACT

Birmingham boasts 11 Nobel Prize winners, including three in 2016 for prizes in Physics and Chemistry. Award-winning research has included developing new treatments for heart disease and cancer, synthesising Vitamin C and revealing the structure of DNA.

With so many options on the type of accommodation available, we are confident that you will find a home to suit you. We have three accommodation villages, each offering a safe and friendly place to live, just a short walk from the main university campus. The Vale Village, Pritchatts Park Village and Selly Oak Village provide a choice of quality accommodation, each with its own student community and social hub. There is the option of either self-catered accommodation or Meal Plan rooms.
THE VALE VILLAGE

Set in beautiful parkland, the Vale Village is just 20 minutes’ walk from the main campus and provides a wide range of accommodation to suit all needs and budgets. The Vale is centred on the Hub, offering a restaurant, café, bar and convenience store. The Hub also provides a space for you to socialise and study so that you can get to know your fellow residents.

PRITCHATTS PARK VILLAGE

Pritchatts Park Village comprises studio accommodation for postgraduate and undergraduate students within walking distance (ten minutes) of the University, close to local amenities and transport links to the city centre. Pritchatts Park is also home to our Global Community, which offers an exciting multicultural living environment, allowing you to build friendships with students around the world.

SELLY OAK VILLAGE

Selly Oak Village is the closest village to campus and is situated in the thriving student area of Selly Oak. Home to much of the student population, Selly Oak provides plenty of choices for bars, cafes, dining and supermarket shopping. Over 900 students live at Selly Oak Village, which now includes 178 bedrooms in our newest accommodation, Bournbrook. Adjoined to this building is a sports pavilion, as well as a bar and a café.

Funding your studies

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST TO ATTEND UNIVERSITY? FIND OUT MORE ABOUT INTERNATIONAL FEES AND LIVING COSTS.

When you are planning your finances for studying in the UK, you will need to consider two main costs:
- Tuition fees, which are your contribution to the cost of learning at Birmingham
- Living costs, which will include travel, accommodation, food and day-to-day expenses

TUITION FEES

The University charges an annual tuition fee to international students that is paid at the start of your programme. This covers the cost of your tuition, examination and graduation, and includes membership of the Guild of Students and access to library and IT facilities. Your tuition fee depends on the programme you choose to study and the level at which you study. If you are made an offer to study by the University your tuition fees will be confirmed in your offer letter. We strongly advise you check the latest fees information with the University before applying: www.birmingham.ac.uk/international/students/finance/fees.aspx

LIVING COSTS

The cost of living varies throughout Britain. Students in Birmingham enjoy lower living costs than many other cities, though this of course depends on your lifestyle. As a rough guide, a single student in University accommodation over a 42-week academic session will spend at least £163 per week. If you are bringing dependants you will need to allow extra.

Visit www.birmingham.ac.uk/livingcosts for more information.

FACT

A survey carried out by online payment provider UKash found Birmingham to be the sixth cheapest of the top UK universities in terms of living costs.

PART-TIME EMPLOYMENT

The Guild of Students gives you access to hundreds of part-time vacancies should you need to support your living costs. They also provide employment information and advice.

CHOOSING TO STUDY IN THE UK IS A REALLY EXCITING DECISION AND YOU PROBABLY HAVE MANY QUESTIONS ON WHAT TO DO NEXT. DEPENDING ON WHICH LEVEL YOU CHOOSE TO STUDY AT YOU CAN FOLLOW THE STEPS BELOW TO HELP GUIDE YOU THROUGH THE APPLICATION PROCESS.

Undergraduate applications

Apply through the Universities and Colleges Admissions Services (UCAS) between early September (prior to the year you wish to study) and 30 June (in the year you wish to study). European Union applicants need to apply before 15 January. If you are applying for Medicine or Dentistry, you will need to apply by 15 October.

1. Visit: www.ucas.com to apply online. Don’t forget you can apply to a maximum of five choices.

2. UCAS will notify you once a decision has been made on your application. If you are successful, you will receive an offer.

3. Once a decision has been made on all your choices UCAS will ask you to confirm which two offers (if any) you want to hold while you wait for all your results. You will need to choose your firm choice programme and an insurance, which is your back up place in case you don’t get the grades required for your firm choice.

4. If you meet the conditions of your offer, your place on the programme will be confirmed.

5. For international (non-EEA) students a Confirmation of Acceptance for Studies (CAS) will be issued at this stage.

Postgraduate taught applications

Postgraduate taught applications are made directly to the University. We recommended that you apply by the beginning of July as the most popular courses may fill up quickly and, if accepted, that you allow sufficient time to obtain a visa.

1. Apply via our course finder pages: www.birmingham.ac.uk/students/courses. Each programme page will take you directly to the application form. Just click ‘apply to study here’ to begin your application.

2. Your application will be considered. This normally takes four to six weeks after your application and supporting documents have been received. An application cannot be considered until all the necessary supporting documents have been received, such as references and transcripts.

3. You can track the progress of your application and receive communications from us via the Applicant Portal. If you are made an offer, this will be either unconditional or conditional.

4. If you accept and meet the conditions of your offer, we will confirm your place.

5. For international (non-EEA) students a Confirmation of Acceptance for Studies (CAS) will be issued at this stage.

Postgraduate research applications

Postgraduate research applications are made directly to the University. There are no official closing dates. To ensure that the necessary facilities and supervisors are available for your study, contact the relevant postgraduate research tutor prior to submitting an application, to discuss the research proposal informally – check our online prospectus for further details: www.birmingham.ac.uk/students/courses/postgraduate/research

1. Apply online via our course finder pages: www.birmingham.ac.uk/students/courses. There will be a link on the programme page which will take you directly to the application form.

Supporting documents

Whether you are applying for an undergraduate or postgraduate programme, you will need to provide supporting documents with your application. These include:

THE FOLLOWING SECTION COVERS ESSENTIAL INFORMATION FOR ALL APPLICANTS, INCLUDING IMPORTANT TERMS, CONDITIONS AND REQUIREMENTS THAT THE UNIVERSITY WILL APPLY AND RELY UPON IN ITS FUTURE RELATIONSHIP WITH YOU. IT ESSENTIAL THAT YOU READ THEM CAREFULLY.

If you decide to accept this offer, a contract will be formed between you and the University. Your rights and obligations to the University and the University’s obligations to you arising under that contract are set out in the documents listed below which will form the terms and conditions of your student contract:

- Your offer letter
- The Undergraduate or Postgraduate Prospectus, as appropriate
- The Code of Practice on Admission of Students (see: intranet.birmingham.ac.uk/as/registry/legislation/index.aspx)
- The University’s Royal Charter, Statutes, Ordinances, Regulations and Codes of Practice; the current version can be viewed on www.birmingham.ac.uk/applicantinformation from which you can find a summary of any changes which have already been agreed for the start of the next academic year
- The University’s health and safety policies and guidance, General Conditions of Use of Computing and Network Facilities, Data Protection Policy, Equality Scheme, Public Interest Disclosure Policy and Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policy (see: intranet.birmingham.ac.uk/as/registry/legislation/index.aspx)

- Programme requirements, which are shown for each programme on our website at: www.birmingham.ac.uk/students/courses/index.aspx

Application and admission to the University: information and requirements

You must provide accurate and complete information in your application form. If you do not, the University can withdraw the offer of a place or insist that you leave.

Programme entry requirements

The programme requirements for admission are set out in the relevant section of the prospectus and our website at: www.birmingham.ac.uk/students/courses/index.aspx. Please consider these carefully to ensure you are eligible for your chosen subject.

Criminal convictions

If your offer of a place is conditional on you obtaining a satisfactory Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) check, the University will decide if any convictions or information revealed are incompatible with a place on the programme. If they are, you will be notified and your offer will be withdrawn. If your situation changes after the offer of a place, please notify the admissions tutor for your programme, or if you have already registered, the programme director.

Fitness to Practise programmes

If you are applying for a Fitness to Practise programme, you may be asked to provide information about your health, undergo a health check and provide evidence of immunisation. Your offer of a place is conditional on such requirements being met. You will also be required to sign a Code of Professional Conduct and Fitness to Practise which is provided with the offer letter.

Blood-borne viruses

For some programmes, such as Medicine and Surgery (MBChB) and Dentistry, all applicants who are made an offer of a place on the course will be required to complete a screening process for Blood Borne Viruses as a condition of their offer. The screening process may be subject to change from time to time, and so you are advised to consult the relevant section of University’s website at: www.birmingham.ac.uk/undergraduate/courses/index.aspx for up-to-date information.

Deferred entry

Applicants who wish to apply for deferred entry should enter this against the University of Birmingham choice on their UCAS form. Applicants wishing to defer entry until September 2018 must meet all the conditions of their offer by 31 August 2017.
The tuition fees stated on your offer letter are based on the start date shown in the offer letter and will apply for the duration of your programme. However, if you defer your entry, then your tuition fees may be more that is stated in your offer letter. You should contact the Admissions Office for more information.

If you defer, the programme and/or its modules, programme requirements and University services and facilities as currently described in the prospectus or on our website may change for your chosen year of entry. Please keep referring to the University’s website where up-to-date information will be published as soon as it is available.

Cancelling your acceptance
After you have accepted an offer of a place, you can cancel your acceptance within the cancellation period without giving us any reason. The cancellation period runs for 14 days from the date we receive your acceptance. If you cancel your offer within the cancellation period, any deposit or administration or other fees you have paid will normally be refunded in full. If you start your programme during the cancellation period, the University will charge you a reasonable sum for the programme provided.

You can cancel your acceptance by informing the University’s Admissions Office by email at admissions@bham.ac.uk or by writing to the Admissions Office, the University of Birmingham, Edgbaston, Birmingham B15 2TT.

Changes to programmes, courses, modules and services
Information set out in the prospectus and on the University website is accurate at the date of publication. However, changes to programmes, modules, University services and the content of the prospectus may be necessary, for example, to meet the requirements of an accrediting body or to keep courses contemporary by updating practices or areas of study. Changes to programmes or modules may also be needed because of circumstances outside the reasonable control of the University, such as a key member of staff leaving the University or being unable to teach (where the programme or module is reliant on that person’s expertise) or where the minimum or maximum number of students needed to ensure a good educational or student experience has not been met or has been exceeded. Other circumstances outside the reasonable control of the University include unexpected lack of funding, industrial action, severe weather, fire, civil disorder, political unrest, government restrictions or serious concern about the transmission of serious illness making a course unsafe to deliver. If changes to your programme are made after you have accepted your offer, the University will try to give you early notification of those changes and, where necessary, minimise their impact by offering suitable alternative arrangements, helping you find an alternative programme or university or providing compensation where it believes there is a fair case to do so.

Fees and payment
The tuition fees stated in your offer letter will apply for the duration of your programme (subject to any changes in the law or government requirements).

It is your responsibility to make sure your fees and all expenses relating to your programme are paid in full and on time. The University’s requirements on the payment of fees can be found in Regulation 5 (see: intranet.birmingham.ac.uk/as/registry/legislation/index.aspx). When you register online, you will be asked to indicate how your fees will be paid. If you are paying your tuition fees yourself, you must either pay the full amount at the beginning of the academic year or apply to pay by instalments using the University direct debit scheme. If you are a sponsored student, you are responsible for payment if your sponsor does not pay your tuition fees.

Additional costs
All students will incur some expense as a result of being at university (eg, stationary, photocopying etc); where specific additional costs will be incurred for a particular programme (eg, field trips), this will be indicated on the relevant web page for that programme at: www.birmingham.ac.uk/students/courses/index.aspx. Core recommended texts are available for borrowing in the University library, however students may wish to purchase their own personal copy. Unless your offer letter says otherwise, the tuition fee quoted in your offer letter does not include any charges for residential accommodation, examination re-sits, extensions to the designated period of study or travelling expenses.
Non-payment of fees
If you do not pay your tuition fees in full or on time, the University may impose penalties which are set out in Regulation 5 (see: intranet.birmingham.ac.uk/as/registry/legislation/index.aspx).
As a result, you may not be allowed to progress on your programme or you may be expelled from the University. The University may also take legal action against you to recover any unpaid fees.

If you do not pay any other (non-tuition) fees or other sums you owe, the University may take action to recover those sums. This may include withholding any service for which you owe money (for example, if you do not pay library fines you may not be allowed to access the library or use some or all of its facilities) or taking legal action against you.

If, as part of your programme, you spend time in another university, institution or organisation in the UK or abroad, the rules and regulations of that university, institution or organisation are likely to apply to you while you are there. Some overseas institutions might impose academic sanctions, for example, they might refuse to release your marks, if you do not pay either tuition fees or any other fees or costs (such as accommodation or meal plan fees) which you owe them. This might mean that you are not able to complete your programme as planned.

Deposits
We reserve the right to charge a deposit for some programmes. Full details will be included in our offer letter where appropriate.

Scholarships, grants and bursaries
At Birmingham we ensure that fears about finance do not constrain prospective students from considering university and that excellence is rewarded. The University offers a range of additional financial support for students studying at Birmingham in the form of bursaries, grants and scholarships. Details are on the University’s website at: www.birmingham.ac.uk/undergraduate/fees/funding/index.aspx

Student Hardship Fund
In addition to scholarships, grants and bursaries, the University can provide financial assistance to students who suffer financial hardship during their studies. Details are on our website at: intranet.birmingham.ac.uk/as/studentservices/funding/index.aspx

Conduct and attendance
Students are required to attend such lectures, tutorials, examinations and other activities as form part of their programme. This includes the requirement to submit theses, dissertations and coursework on time. Students must also be aware of and observe the University’s regulations and codes of practice relating to conduct, plagiarism, attendance and reasonable diligence — see: intranet.birmingham.ac.uk/as/registry/legislation/index.aspx. The University can impose penalties if you do not follow these requirements, and in serious cases the University can suspend or expel you from the University.

Diversity and equality
The University prides itself on being a diverse community within a diverse city. Our commitment to equality and diversity and the elimination of discrimination is embodied in the University’s Charter and our aim is to ensure that the University remains an inclusive environment where equality of opportunity and tolerance for all are fostered and promoted.

Disabilities
If you have a disability, the University will seek to support you whenever possible and reasonable to do so. If you have not yet disclosed that disability, we encourage you to do so at the earliest opportunity. As individual students’ needs (even those with the same condition) can vary, it is important that you contact the Disability and Learning Support Service at: www.birmingham.ac.uk/undergraduate/support/disability/index.aspx before you accept any offer of a place to find out what type of support is likely to be available to you and what information we need to arrange it. If you choose not to tell us about your disability, provide this information with short notice before your course or examination/assessment start dates or do not provide full information about it before or during your programme, we will do our best to help you but you might not be able to have access to the full range of support which might otherwise be available to you.

Religious observance
The University is committed to the promotion of equality. However, you should be aware that:

- Sometimes we have to schedule activities, including examinations, on Fridays and Saturdays. If this is likely to conflict with the observance of religious days for some students, the University will try to make alternative arrangements where reasonably possible. Therefore students are advised to inform the relevant School and/or the Examinations Office in writing of such issues as soon as possible.

☐ While the University imposes no dress code on its students and welcomes the variety of appearance brought by individual styles and choices of dress, there may be exceptions. For example, some professional regulatory bodies or placement providers may have requirements as to what can be worn in certain situations, such as clinical settings. Medical students must sign a Code of Professional Conduct in which they agree to show their faces at all times, and must be prepared to examine and touch patients of both sexes. See also: www.birmingham.ac.uk/students/support

International students
The University’s International Students Advisory Service (ISAS) provides support and advice for prospective international students – see: intranet.birmingham.ac.uk/as/studentservices/international/index.aspx

If you are an international non-European Union (non-EU) student and need a visa to enable you to be in the UK to study, you will have to attend a Right to Study Check when you first arrive at the University. If you do not attend this Right to Study Check or cannot provide conclusive proof that you have the correct visa or immigration permission, you will not be allowed to begin your programme and/or you may be withdrawn from your programme. It is essential that you regularly read our emails (in the email account you used on your application to the University) and that you follow very carefully the instructions for arrival, collection of Biometric Residence Permits and Right to Study checks.

Intellectual property
If you, in the course of your study or research, develop intellectual property including an invention, device, discovery, material, product, process, computer software or any other potentially valuable result or innovation with material input from the University’s academic staff or as part of a collective project, programme or research activity, you assign all rights in such intellectual property to the University; the procedures and arrangements for notification and exploitation will be the same as those for Staff in the University set out in Regulation 3.16, Patents and the Exploitation of Inventions. The University will not make any claim to any intellectual property developed by you in circumstances other than those set out above. Details of the University’s procedures and guidance involving sharing of revenue from exploitation are available from the Director of Research and Knowledge Transfer within each of the colleges, Alta Innovations Ltd or the Registrar and Secretary, and see: www.birmingham.ac.uk/applicantinformation

Accommodation
Your right to reside in University accommodation is dependent on you continuing to study at the University. There are separate terms and conditions which apply to your occupation of University accommodation, and further details of these are available at: www.birmingham.ac.uk/accommodation

When you may be asked to leave the University
You may be asked to leave the University if:

☐ Your academic performance is not satisfactory
☐ You are expelled from the University for breach of the conduct, Fitness to Practise, attendance or reasonable diligence requirements
☐ You do not pay your tuition fees in accordance with the University’s Regulations
☐ You are dismissed or expelled from any other organisation which you are required to attend or be a member of as part of your programme
☐ You do not have the correct visa or immigration permission to study on your programme at the University, and you are an international non-EU student needing a visa to enable you to be in the UK to study
☐ The University has reason to believe that you have not supplied all relevant information or have supplied false or misleading information relating to your application to the University
☐ As a result of your actions, the University is unable to find a suitable placement which is required to complete your programme

A decision requiring you to leave the University will be taken in accordance with the relevant procedure and subject to any right of appeal or review. If the University has good reason for expelling you and does so in accordance with the relevant procedure, the University will not compensate you for any loss or damage you may suffer as a result.
Complaints
The University is committed to providing a high-quality educational experience, supported by a range of academic and administrative services and facilities. From time to time, however, things do go wrong, and if the matter cannot be resolved informally, the University provides students with a system for raising concerns and complaints about both academic and non-academic matters.

The Code of Practice on Student Concerns and Complaints (see: intranet.birmingham.ac.uk/as/registry/legislation/index.aspx) sets out a procedure for dealing with students’ complaints fairly, consistently and as quickly as possible. Students who are dissatisfied with a decision relating to a complaint they have raised may be able to complain to the Office of the Independent Adjudicator (OIA), an independent body which reviews student complaints; more information about the OIA is available on its website at www.oiahe.org.uk. The Code of Practice on Admissions (see: intranet.birmingham.ac.uk/as/registry/legislation/index.aspx) sets out the procedure for asking for a review of decisions made in the application and admissions process.

Data protection and disclosure of personal information
The University will collect information about you from the application and registration procedures, as part of your academic progress and university life and from carrying out Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) checks or health checks (if necessary). The University and the organisations we work with to deliver programmes will use this to support you on your programme, for the administration and management of the University, including statistical analysis and to contact you about University business. Medical information disclosed to the University’s Medical Officer or the Student Support and Counselling Services will be treated as confidential. Information arising from DBS checks will be used only in accordance with the DBS code of practice (see: www.gov.uk/government/publications/dbs-code-of-practice).

Some information may be disclosed outside the University, for example, at your request, with your consent or in order to meet statutory obligations. We may disclose information relating to your academic progress to your sponsor (if you have one).

We will also ask for emergency contact details, and by providing them, you confirm that these individuals have consented to the processing of their personal data by the University.

All information will be kept for a reasonable period in accordance with legal requirements and for administration purposes. Further information can be found at: www.birmingham.ac.uk/university/governance/policies-regs/data-protection.aspx

General matters
The University will not be liable to you and you will not be liable to the University for any failure or delay in performing obligations if the failure or delay is due to any significant cause beyond the University’s or your reasonable control, such as fire, flood or industrial dispute.

Your contract with the University is between you and the University and only these two parties can enforce it. The Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 does not apply. The contract between you and the University is governed by English law and is subject to any changes in the law which affect this contract.

If you have any questions please contact the undergraduate admissions tutor for your school.

The University is an exempt charity under Schedule 3 of the Charities Act 2011. An exempt charity enjoys all the tax exemptions and other benefits of a charity, but is exempt from certain requirements, including the need to register with the Charity Commission. As it is not on the Register of Charities, the University does not have a charity registration number, and although it is a corporate body, the University is not a limited company, therefore it is not registered at Companies House. It does have a tax-exempt Inland Revenue charities reference number (X7237).
