A WARM CAMPUS WELCOME
Surrounded by nature and beautiful scenery, Royal Roads University provides a peaceful learning environment where you can focus on your studies. At the centre of our campus, you will find historic Hatley Castle. It is often used for lectures and meetings, but you may recognize it as a filming location from popular TV shows and movies such as X-Men, Smallville, and Arrow.

ROYAL ROADS UNIVERSITY OFFERS A WORLD-CLASS CANADIAN EDUCATION. YOU WILL RECEIVE THE TOOLS, TRAINING, AND CONNECTIONS NEEDED TO HELP YOU SUCCEED IN YOUR DEGREE PROGRAM AND IN YOUR FUTURE CAREER.

“THE FACULTY HERE ARE AMAZING. I HAVE CONTACT WITH ALL MY PROFESSORS, AND I’M ACTUALLY NOT A NUMBER – I’M A STUDENT AND I HAVE A NAME.”

Mabel from Brazil
BBA in Business and Sustainability

A UNIQUE WAY OF LEARNING FOR GLOBAL SUCCESS
A UNIQUE WAY TO LEARN
Our degree programs follow a unique learning model that will help you get the most out of your studies. In class, you will study in small groups, taking your turn to lead and follow. In these groups, known as cohorts, you can share ideas, challenge your thinking, and develop communication and teamwork skills that will benefit you throughout your studies and beyond.

A CAREER-FOCUSED APPROACH
Our programs have been created with input from industry leaders. This means that everything you study will have a practical, relevant application in the world of work. You will learn from professors who are experts in their fields and passionate about teaching. To prepare you for career success, we will help you secure an internship where you can put classroom theory into practice.

Canada is home to people from around the globe, making it one of the most multicultural and welcoming countries in the world. As a student here, you will benefit from a world-class education and a high-quality lifestyle.

Victoria

Royal Roads University is located on the west coast, in the province of British Columbia. The campus is just twenty minutes from downtown Victoria, a friendly city with stunning scenery, a fascinating history, and many activities and attractions.

There’s Something for Everyone to See and Do in Victoria:

- Experience the city’s energy and culture. Go to museums, watch shows at the theatre, and enjoy the city’s festivals, including Chinese New Year celebrations and the International JazzFest.
- Discover a new outdoor sport or activity you love. You can try everything from golfing, skiing, and snowboarding to whale watching or scuba diving.
- Explore new cities. Vancouver is only 30 minutes from Victoria by plane, or 90 minutes by ferry. You can also travel to Seattle by plane or ferry.
- Learn about Victoria’s interesting history. Take a step back in time and visit Craigdarroch Castle or the Royal British Columbia Museum.
- Try new food from around the world. There are many cafés and restaurants in the city, serving food from Italy, Thailand, Mexico, Vietnam, India, and China.
- Enjoy shopping in department stores, small shops, and local markets. Whatever it is you are looking for, you will be able to find it in Victoria.
“I’m in my Pre-Master’s Program. We have just fifteen students in our class, so it’s really easy to communicate and the teacher is able to give attention to every student properly.”

Naime from Pakistan
Master of Global Management

INSPIRING
UNDERGRADUATE DEGREES

Royal Roads University offers a range of undergraduate programs for students who want to develop successful careers around the world. You will have the opportunity to learn alongside highly motivated students and gain practical work experience through internships.

UNDERGRADUATE DEGREE BENEFITS AT ROYAL ROADS

- Learning environment tailored to your needs
- Small class sizes
- Personal attention from tutors
- Supportive student community.

JOIN YEAR THREE OF A DEGREE

If you have credits from another university or college, and meet the English language requirements for the degree you wish to study, you can apply for direct entry to join year three of an undergraduate degree.

ACCELERATED LEARNING

Undergraduate programs are offered over a four-term on-campus model, combining years three and four into an intensive 12 months. The terms include four to six courses over a time frame of approximately ten weeks, with an additional week at the end of the last term for final papers and exams, to complete 60 credit hours. Students are expected to be on campus every day.

BUSINESS

Bachelor of Business Administration in Business and Sustainability (BBA)

This unique program combines social science and commerce, preparing you to balance the needs of people, process, and profit in your career. You will learn how to create and manage sustainable and responsible business practices in a competitive environment. Graduates work as business administrators, general managers, international business brokers, and more. Available for year 1 and year 3 entry. The accelerated learning model is not available for BBA.

Bachelor of Commerce in Entrepreneurial Management (BCom)

This program focuses on innovation and entrepreneurial management. You will develop your critical thinking, teamwork, and problem-solving skills, and learn to think globally. Students must have at least two years of relevant work experience to enter this program. Graduates work in exciting industries as business analysts, accountant trainees, and more. Available for year 3 entry only.
TOURISM & HOSPITALITY
Bachelor of Arts in Global Tourism Management (BAGTM)
This program gives you a comprehensive understanding of applied tourism, social sciences, and humanities. You will learn how to manage socially and environmentally sustainable tourism in a commercial context. Graduates work as assistant product development managers, conference or events coordinators, municipal tourism assistant planners, and more. Available for year 1 and year 3 entry.

Bachelor of Arts in International Hotel Management (BAIHM)
This program allows you to develop a broad range of leadership, analytical, and interpersonal skills in real industry settings. You will gain vital knowledge of international hospitality and undertake work experience with leading hoteliers. Graduates work as desk managers, reservations agents, sales associates, and more. Available for year 1 and year 3 entry.

COMMUNICATION & CULTURE
Bachelor of Arts in Professional Communication (BAPC)
This program examines the areas of language, media, culture, and technology. You will also gain professional experience and practical skills to prepare you for success in the workplace. Graduates work as technical writers, public relations officers, journalists, broadcasters, and more. Students entering at undergraduate year 1 must complete years 3&4 via our accelerated model.

ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE
Bachelor of Science in Environmental Science (BScES)
This program will enhance your existing environmental science knowledge, deepening your understanding of environmental management, economics, law, community relations, communications skills, and sustainable development. You need to have university-level chemistry, biology, math, physics, and communication credits. Graduates work as assistants to senior environmental executives, environmental policy advisors, and more. Available for year 3 entry only.

HUMANITARIAN STUDIES
Bachelor of Arts in Justice Studies (BAJS)
This program teaches the theoretical and practical foundations, as well as the critical thinking skills you need to assess issues related to justice. You will learn about the Canadian justice system, including criminal justice, conflict resolution, and mediation. Graduates work as paralegals, diversion counsellors, immigration officers, and more. Available for year 3 entry only.

“No institution offered what I was looking for until the BBA in Sustainability and International Business at Royal Roads University opened up. PRACTICAL GRADUATE DEGREES

Royal Roads University offers a range of graduate programs for ambitious students who want to take their professional career and personal success to a higher level. You will have the opportunity to gain valuable work experience and build new industry contacts through internships.

BUSINESS

Master of Global Management (MGM)
This program will prepare you for success as a strong manager and entrepreneurial leader. You will observe and understand cultures around the world, learning to work effectively in a climate of uncertainty or ambiguity. This informed perspective will equip you for the realities of international business, whether you seek to work in a global corporation or launch your own company. Graduates work in leadership positions with entrepreneurial ventures, transnational corporations, international business development, and more.

Communication & Culture

Master of Arts in Intercultural and International Communication (MAIIC)
International Communication is designed for students who want to pursue a communication career in our increasingly diversified and globalized world. You will learn to engage different audiences in different cultural environments. You will focus on topics such as organizational communication and culture, public culture, intercultural competence, global policies, and international relations. Students have interned for the marketing department at Royal Roads University, Royal BC Museum, Centre for Intercultural Dialogue, Shaw TV, Vancouver Fashion Week, and Chandigarh University in India. Graduates work in professional roles as communications officers, communications directors, writers, editors, publishers, and more.

TOURISM & HOSPITALITY

Master of Arts in Tourism Management (MATM)
This program is the first of its kind in Canada’s tourism and hospitality education sector. Created in collaboration with industry experts, students, faculty, and education partners, this course directly responds to the worldwide industry demand for leaders who can build and sustain a competitive advantage in the global tourism market. You will compare and contrast approaches from real-life case studies and learn the latest thinking in destination development, sustainability, and global tourism. Graduates work with government tourism organizations, destination marketing organizations, private tourism companies, consulting firms, and more.

“The Master of Global Management helped me build upon my exposure to human resource management and gain superior analytical skills and technological know-how. Most importantly, it helped me to get a job in the utility sector and equipped me with the skill to function effectively with individuals from different cultures, regions, and ideologies.”

Malini from India
Master of Global Management
NEW CENTRE AT ROYAL ROADS UNIVERSITY

“We are continually transforming education to meet the needs of our students, their employers and the people of B.C. and Canada.”

Chancellor Allan Cahoon
Royal Roads President and Vice
Centre for Environmental Science and International Partnership.

WORLD-CLASS FACILITIES
The new Centre for Environmental Science and International Partnership will foster innovation and intercultural understanding through new environmental teaching and learning spaces for on-campus undergraduate programs.

WORLD-WIDE SUPPORT
Funding for the $24.8 million CAD building is a collaborative effort between Royal Roads University, Government of Canada, the Province of British Columbia, and Dr. Sherman Jen, founder and chairman of Maple Leaf Education Systems in China.

INNOVATION IN SUSTAINABILITY
Construction of the centre includes major renovation to the Mews building, a century-old heritage structure, and a two-storey addition. By combining the old and new we will create an environmentally sensitive, sustainable research centre.
“Canada is a place where, if you’re going to work and study really hard, the country is going to open its doors to you and you’re not going to have any problem finding a job.”

Mauel from Venezuela
Master of Global Management

Graduating with international work and life experience gives you the valuable skills and knowledge that companies look for when selecting employees.

BUILD YOUR CAREER
Our programs are designed to help you succeed in your career. Many degree programs at Royal Roads University include internship options, giving you the chance to apply what you have learned in the classroom while gaining practical work experience.

An internship is your opportunity to:
- Gain a better understanding of your academic subject area
- Improve your CV
- Find out what it is like to work in your industry
- Develop new skills, such as project management and team work
- Boost your confidence and motivation to succeed
- Network with industry professionals who will be able to provide job references.
We can help
Our Career Enhancement Services team can help you look for internships and work experience that suits you. You will also have access to the Symplicity online portal. This is where employers can look for students they want to employ, and where you can search for work opportunities that interest you.

Build your life in Canada
As a Royal Roads University graduate, you may be eligible to apply for the Post-Graduation Work Permit Program, allowing you to work in Canada for up to three years after graduation. You may also have the opportunity to stay in Canada permanently. For more information, please visit cic.gc.ca.

Work while you study
If you have a study permit for full-time study, you may be able to work off campus for up to twenty hours per week while studying in Canada.

Royal Roads students work with top employers, such as:

- Boeing
- Carnival Cruise Lines
- Hilton Hotels & Resorts
- Hyatt Hotels & Resorts
- PepsiCo Beverages.

Programs with internships:

- Bachelor of Arts in Global Tourism Management (BAGTM)
- Bachelor of Arts in International Hotel Management (BAIHM)
- Master of Global Management (MGM)
- Master of Arts in Intercultural and International Communication (MAIIC)
- Master of Arts in Tourism Management (MATM).
“Canada is a very multicultural society, so I can meet people from different countries. Some of my friends have invited me to visit their countries. It has opened my horizons.”

Jessie from China
MA in Tourism Management
Living with a Canadian family during your studies allows you to experience a real Canadian lifestyle and improve your English language skills, all in a welcoming and friendly home environment.

FIND YOUR HOME AWAY FROM HOME
Royal Roads University works with the Canada Homestay Network, who will help you find your perfect home while you study. They will match you with a host family, based on your lifestyle, interests, and expectations.

HOST FAMILIES
We want you to have the very best experience while living with your host family. Canada Homestay Network visits all families to make sure their homes are safe, clean, and comfortable. They also make sure that you get the emotional care and support you need to succeed in your studies.

Your new home will have:
- A furnished room with a window
- A bed with clean linen – pillow, sheets, and blankets
- Private storage for your personal items
- Access to a shared bathroom with your own clean towels
- A quiet place to study, usually in your own room.

PRIVATE ACCOMMODATION
If you are aged 19 or over and want to live independently, the Student Services team at Royal Roads can help you look for private accommodation, such as an apartment.
“The cohort model is really interesting and it’s a concept that a lot of universities should take on, because in the real world you’re not working by yourself most of the time. I love it personally.

I would describe the campus as majestic. I think that it’s quite beautiful, especially when you’re driving down and you just see the mountains, the ocean, and the castle.”

Mimi from Canada
BA in Professional Communication
