How to Apply

WELCOME TO ROOSEVELT, IN THE HEART OF CHICAGO

Roosevelt University's mission is simple: to bring together diverse viewpoints and put knowledge to work for good. International students are a vital part of that mission.

At Roosevelt's International Study Center, students come together in Chicago to pursue academic study while improving their English. Our talented faculty and staff provide specialized support, helping international students' achieve their academic goals while expanding their skills. The campus is located in the heart of downtown Chicago, within minutes of theaters, museums, parks, Lake Michigan, and restaurants. It's a metropolitan city, offering endless career and volunteer options to students.

Read on to discover why students from all over the world call Roosevelt, and Chicago, their second home.

BEAUTIFUL SPACES

Chicago takes pride in its greenery with over 500 parks across the city. The city motto even means "City in a Garden". During your career at the International Study Center, you will live and study across the street from Millennium Park, with dramatic views overlooking the Chicago Harbor and Lake Michigan.

GREAT FOOD

You will find some of the best food in the U.S. while living in Chicago. People visit from all over the world to try the famous Chicago deep-dish pizza. With 77 distinct neighborhoods across the city you will easily find a wide selection of authentic ethnic restaurants, specialty grocery stores, and cultural food festivals.

LIVELY ENTERTAINMENT

Chicago is a vibrant city where you will find concerts, parades, shows and festivals to attend. During the summer there are lots of festivals held in Chicago's many parks, and in venues across the city. Explore world-class museums, theater, sports, and cultural events. In this thriving lifestyle you will always find something to do.

GETTING AROUND

Roosevelt's campus is located in the heart of Chicago, so you can quickly access your favorite destinations and attractions. In this walkable city you can easily get around on foot, or use the train and bus for quick transport. Chicago has the second largest public transportation system in the U.S., so you can get anywhere in just a few minutes. Roosevelt students can use the bus service for free, or use the local bike-share scheme, Divvy, at a reduced rate. Access 6,000 bikes across 580 stations in a city perfect for cyclists.

"I love living in Chicago.

The people are accepting and they embrace my culture and want to know more about me. I'm part of a diverse community with people from different countries and backgrounds. I love it."

PRE-MASTER'S PROGRAM
MBA MARKETING CONCENTRATION

ROOSEVELT IS A LEADING UNIVERSITY, PROVIDING A MODERN AND PERSONALIZED EDUCATION IN A WORLD-CLASS CITY. BEGIN BUILDING YOUR FUTURE.

ROOTED IN HISTORY

Roosevelt University is named in honor of Franklin D. Roosevelt – the 32nd president of the United States – and his wife Eleanor. Together, they were a driving force for human rights and equality. Since its founding in 1945, Roosevelt University has remained committed to social justice and the availability of a quality education.

MODERN FACILITIES

The four buildings of the Roosevelt University Chicago Campus are located in Chicago's downtown Loop, and provide everything you need. Find modern labs with state-of-the-art technology to support your research, and social spaces for relaxed study or meet-ups with friends. At the International Study Center you will live and study in the high-rise Wabash Building. Here, you will find comfortable living spaces, amenities, and your classrooms in an architecturally unique building that is Gold LEED-Certified for its sustainability and green-design.

INDIVIDUAL ATTENTION

You will receive a personalized education at Roosevelt. Our low student-faculty ratio (11:1) means you will benefit from individual attention and the opportunity for one-on-one guidance. Class sizes are small to ensure you experience a focused learning environment, dedicated to your personal development.

ACCESS SUCCESS

Chicago is home to 31 Fortune 500 companies and over 400 corporations have headquarters here. At Roosevelt, you will take the first steps towards your career in the heart of international business. While studying you may have the opportunity to intern with these leading companies to gain practical industry experience.
