Why Study Arts and Science at Queen's?

Arts and Science is an integrated faculty, with a strong sense of shared purpose. As a student, you benefit from the opportunity to choose from a variety of study options and to develop transdisciplinary skills that are highly valued by employers. Many students start in the general first year. While you settle into university life, you have the chance to explore and work with our faculty and advisors to uncover your real interests and opportunities for success. Sometimes that discovery happens quickly, and other times it takes some time before the "ah-ha!" happens! Other students choose to enroll directly in our Fine Art, Kinesiology and Health Studies, Life Sciences, Music, and Music Theatre programs.* Either way, your first year will be a great experience!

Arts

From courses that explore ancient humour to ones that define “race” and racism; to international opportunities such as studying Cuban Culture and Society in Cuba, or studying art and architecture at our annual Summer School in Venice; to career-focused experiential courses like the Queen’s Archives Internship – obtaining an Arts degree (BAH) from Queen’s is as unique as you are.

Degrees

Bachelor of Arts, Honours (BAH)

Science

From courses that explore oceanography to quantum mechanics to climate change; to hands-on field studies at the Queen’s University Biological Station (QUBS) on Lake Opinicon or the deep underground laboratory called SNOLAB that studies dark matter and dark energy; to certificates such as the Geographic Information Science (GIS) to top up your degree – obtaining a Science degree (BScH) from Queen’s is as impressive as you are.

Degrees

Bachelor of Computing, Honours (BCmpH)

Can be with the QBridge Pathway.

Bachelor of Science in Life Sciences, Honours (BScH)

What is a Flipped Classroom?

The flipped classroom model of education, offered by the Queen's BHScH program, uses teaching facilities specifically designed to enhance face-to-face interactions, enabling students to learn from each other and from the teaching team in an effective manner. Using this approach, students are not restricted by the traditional delivery method, with the predefined hours of lecture-based learning. Instead, students are provided access to interactive online modules to learn at their own pace prior to attending engaging, active learning classroom sessions where they will be expected to apply and integrate course material in a real-world context.

Degree

Admission Pathway for Indigenous Students

Queen's offers Indigenous candidates an additional and alternative pathway for admission to the first year of a full-time, first-entry undergraduate degree program, known as the Indigenous Admission Policy.

Indigenous candidates apply through the Ontario Universities' Application Centre (OUAC) and self-identify as having Indigenous ancestry. Candidates must meet the general admission requirements for each program and deadlines for undergraduate admission. This may also include other supplementary information that will be requested on the To-Do List in your SOLUS Student Centre.

Candidates seeking admission consideration under this policy should submit a separate letter to the Indigenous Community Liaison stating that they wish to be considered under this policy along with proof of Indigenous ancestry (First Nation, Status/Non-Status, Métis or Inuit). Admission to Queen's University will depend on the assessment of the student's program prerequisites (or equivalencies) as well as the student's overall average and submission of any required supplementary information. The number of students admitted each year under this policy will be determined in the annual enrolment plan upon consultation with the faculties and schools. For more information, please email the Indigenous Outreach Liason.

First-Generation Student Admission Pathway

Queen's encourages participation in post-secondary education by First-Generation students. We offer First-Generation candidates, including Pathways to Education students, Leadership by Design participants, Extended Society Care students, Big Brothers and Big Sisters Pumped for Post-Secondary program, and members of the Boys and Girls Club Raising the Grade program, an additional and alternative admission pathway to the first year of a full-time, first-entry undergraduate degree program.

Offers of admission will be made to First-Generation candidates whose total application shows strong evidence of academic preparedness and potential. Students will be introduced to the contacts and services available at the Student Experience Office and the Student Awards Office during the application process, and upon admission. Queen's University encourages students to access these services throughout their time at Queen's. Students who are admitted through this pathway will be encouraged to make use of the academic advising and academic support services available to all students at Queen's University.

Admission Requirements

► queensu.ca/admission/about-applying/requirements

Visit the website above for detailed admission requirements and competitive averages for each degree program, for your location or educational system.

Competitive averages are based on the minimum average (based on prerequisite courses) required for admission consideration for September 2020, and can vary from year-to-year. Achieving the minimum average does not guarantee admission. Any additional information we require (including due dates) will be posted on your To-Do List in SOLUS. Preference is given to applicants with the strongest overall qualifications.

Supplementary Admission Information

► queensu.ca/admission/about-applying/documents

Your high school transcript is just one piece of information we use when making an admission decision. Each applicant to Queen's has a unique To-Do List, detailing exactly what we need to round out your application. You can see your To-Do List (and the due dates) on your SOLUS Student Centre. We will send your SOLUS access information after you apply. Learn more about submitting your documents on the website listed above.

We review and update our Supplementary requirements on a regular basis to ensure applicants have a meaningful platform to share additional information not available through their grades. Please visit our website for the most up-to-date information on Supplementary requirements and how, when and for which programs they are required.
