

The University of Languages and International Studies – Vietnam National University, Hanoi (abbreviated as ULIS – VNU) features among leading universities in Vietnam.

As a constituent of VNU, ULIS offers a wide range of courses in languages and cultures, including English, French, German, Russian, Italian, Spanish, Chinese, Korean, Japanese, Thai, Laotian, Arabic and Vietnamese. ULIS' high-quality educational system enables students to enjoy not only undergraduate and postgraduate programs but also lower and upper secondary school's programs. Every year, ULIS welcomes a large number of international students to study various courses. In addition, the University offers different courses in Vietnamese language and culture which attract even more students from overseas to come and enjoy. International students play a significant role in contributing to the development and reputation of ULIS.

Highlights:

- Total number of students: approximately 10,000, including 300 international students.
- Over 50 international experts working at ULIS.
- 2 joint undergraduate programs and 2 joint postgraduate programs with famous universities in the USA, Europe and Australia.
- Over 10 study tour programs for international students organized every year.

Creating Opportunities Together

Find out more: en.ulis.vnu.edu.vn

