Creating Opportunities Together

The University of Languages and International Studies – Vietnam National University, Hanoi (abbreviated as ULIS - VNU) has established cooperative relations with over 200 partners at home and abroad. Therefore, ULIS students and lecturers have plenty of opportunities to experience different languages and cultures via long-term and short-term abroad studies, exchanges, etc. ULIS also welcomes a great number of international students every year. Since 2015, over 700 international students have enrolled in various programs at ULIS.

Each year, international experts from different ULIS partners around the world, including the USA, Germany, France, Canada, Russia, China, Japan, Korea, Slovenia, Austria, Hong Kong, Egypt, Italia, Spain, Thailand, etc., journey across the globe to join us. So when you choose to live and study here, you'll not only be taught by our Vietnamese lecturers but also experience various teaching methods and the depth of knowledge that our international experts bring to ULIS.
