Appointment of Pro-Vice-Chancellor and Head of the College of Life and Environmental Sciences

Our heritage as Britain's first civic university is combined with one of the most compelling and ambitious agendas in higher education. With sector-leading initiatives, the University is investing in its intellectual capacity, its beautiful campus and its student experience. Quite simply, at the University of Birmingham we make things happen.

Birmingham is a leading member of the Russell Group and a founder member of the Universitas 21 global network of research universities. Ranked in the top 100 universities globally and in the top 20 in all domestic league tables, the quality of what we do at Birmingham is widely recognised.

We are seeking an inspirational leader for the College of Life and Environmental Sciences. The Pro-Vice-Chancellor and Head of College is a member of the University Executive Board with full responsibility for leading the College and its Schools of Psychology, Geography, Earth and Environmental Sciences, Biosciences, and Sport, Exercise and Rehabilitation Sciences.

The College of Life and Environmental Sciences is a vibrant community of 700 academic and professional services staff. The College has exciting and ambitious plans over the next ten years to increase research income and quality, as well as supporting all of our students both on-campus, overseas and through our developing distance-learning offer. The College is strongly placed to be in the vanguard of the University's ambitions to be firmly established as a leading global university, through its commitment to internationalisation at all levels, including emerging contributions to our new Dubai campus.

Reporting to the Vice-Chancellor, the Pro-Vice-Chancellor and Head of College will drive continued academic improvement, provide financial and managerial leadership and sustain the highest levels of excellence across all of the College's activities.

In joining the leadership team of an ambitious and successful university you will have an enviable track record for your research in one of the Life and Environmental Sciences, a commitment to outstanding education, proven leadership and management credentials, and the vision and capability to enhance the College. As a member of an outstanding leadership team you will have the opportunity to shape initiatives across the University.

Go Beyond

The University of Hull is on a journey, one that is led by our commitment to delivering excellent research and a fantastic student experience. Over the last few years the higher education landscape has altered dramatically and it is imperative as a University that we do not stand still. We are committed to evolving our approach to ensure that we meet the needs of our students, regional, national and global collaborators and partners, both now and in the future.

Head of School of Arts

Head of School of Education and Social Sciences

Head of School of Health and Social Work

Head of School of Mathematics and Physical Science

These four Head of School roles are phase two of an exciting programme of recruitment. We look forward to welcoming strong leaders to the University who will work with colleagues, students and partners to achieve Hull's bold ambitions. Our values – open, excellent and connected – reflect who we are and how we work to create a culture for success.

This is a time of great opportunity for the University of Hull. For full information on these roles, please visit andersonquigley.com/go-beyond

The closing date for applications is midday on Friday 25 May 2018.

University of Hull is an equal opportunities employer and positively welcomes applications from candidates who are currently under-represented at this level.

THE UNIVERSITY of EDINBURGH

The University of Edinburgh is an exciting, vibrant, research led academic community offering opportunities to work with leading international academics whose visions are shaping tomorrow's world.

College of Medicine and Veterinary Medicine Head of Academic Administration

Salary Grade 9 (£50,618 - £56,950 per annum)

The University of Edinburgh is a research and teaching institution of the highest international quality, ranked in the global top 20 and located in one of the world's finest cities. The College of Medicine and Veterinary Medicine is seeking an experienced manager with a proven track record in higher education teaching management to provide overall leadership of academic administration for both postgraduate and undergraduate activities across the College.

As well as high level administrative management for learning and teaching you will provide strategic advice to senior colleagues and make a major contribution to College strategy and policy in the area of learning and teaching. You will have significant experience of leading, operational planning, developing policies and implementation and managing multi professional administrative teams, excellent communication and negotiation skills and the ability to work across organisational boundaries to develop and implement constructive solutions to address complex problems.

We welcome applications from everyone irrespective of gender or ethnic group. As women and members of ethnic minorities are currently under-represented in posts at this level we particularly encourage applications from members of these groups.
