

THE Awards Asia 2020 - International Strategy of the Year

Institution Name	Amity University
Submission title or project name	Amity University's International Strategy
Nominee/key personnel	Dr Atul Chauhan, Chancellor
Submission	On establishing Amity University in India fifteen years ago, we took a strategic decision to open campuses across the world to give Amity students and faculty a unique international exposure. Amity now has campuses in London, New York, San Francisco, Singapore, Dubai, Mauritius, Nairobi, Bucharest, South Africa, Amsterdam and Tashkent. In 10 years, we plan to be in another 30 cities globally. For the Amity University campus in Tashkent, the Government of Uzbekistan is investing tens of millions of Pounds to build a hi-tech 10-acre campus. Similarly, the Government of Netherlands has given Amity five million Euros to establish the campus there. In 2019, 4,000 students went on Study Abroad Programs across Amity campuses globally, and we are now committing over 15 million Pounds to help 10,000 students to gain international exposure. Amity is also the only university in Asia to have both US Regional Accreditation and QAA, UK Accreditation.