

THE Awards Asia 2020 - International Strategy of the Year

Institution Name	King Mongkut's Institute of Technology Ladkrabang
Submission title or project name	Connecting Thai Academic in The Stage of The World
Nominee/key personnel	Prof. Dr. Suchatvee Suwansawat
Submission	KMITL strives to be the leading internationally focused university in the fields of science and technology. According to the ASEAN Economic Community (AEC), staff at such institutions are able to transfer more freely across the borders of southeast Asian nations, to the benefit of all. KMITL has the strategy to be an important, innovation-driven internationalized institution, helping to bring STEM knowledge to students across multiple educational levels. KMITL has established many international schools including: King Mongkut's International Demonstration School (KMIDS), a STEM-based school following California Common Core State Standards; KOSEN-KMITL, which offers a 5 year diploma course in mechanical engineering that covers 3 years of high school (grade 9-12); Carnegie Mellon - KMITL (CMKL University), a collaboration with the world's top computer engineering and science university; and 42 Bangkok KMITL, a computer programming school that offers practical skills in software and IT, responding to industry demands internationally.