

THE Awards Asia 2020 - Outstanding Leadership and Management Team

Institution name	Seoul National University
Submission title or project name	Launch of the Corporation Reestablishment Committee and the Revision of the Tax-free Law at National University Corporation
Submission	Following the inauguration of President Oh Se-jung at Seoul National University in February 2019, the Corporation Reestablishment Committee was launched in June 2019 to advance the school through the reestablishment of the corporation system. The committee consists of major office holders, faculty, staff, students, and outside figures. The committee has the following three roles: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Propose the goals and vision of Seoul National University 2) Propose a reestablishment plan on governance and university operation organizations to realize these goals and vision 3) Expand finance to secure sustainability in the school's advancement and suggest an asset operation plan Seoul National University plans to use the tax shields on increasing international competitiveness, including forming a venture startup environment and AI-centered innovative ecosystem, helping to secure a position as a world-leading university.